To the

How Commissioner of Indian Affairs
Washington D. C.

Sir.

Gabriel Reville chief from Sisseton Agency is here to remove the boy of his son to his home, he desires to take back with him his daughter Nancy and to return her to the school with the detachment of children which he says the Department told his party when they were in Washington last Spring, they might send from the Sisseton Agency to the school this fall.

As Mr Reville's spirit in the matter is so good in every way I have permitted him to take his daughter home to be returned with the delegation

Very Respectfully

Your Obedient Servant
