TRAINING SCHOOL FOR INDIAN YOUTH,

CARLISLE BARRACKS,

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 18th, 1880

Hon. Carl Schurz
Secretary of the Interior

Sir.

Responses have been received to the invitation for a School visiting board endorsed by you, from Presidents Seelye of Amherst, Porter of Yale, and Gilman of Johns Hopkins. The tone of all their letters is very gratifying. They will come, and the vacation season of their several institutions, at the end of Dec, seems to meet the pressure of all their duties best.

President Anderson of Rochester University has not yet replied. He may be absent from home. There is no doubt of his warm interest.

Very respectfully
Yours Ob. Servt.
A. H. Paul
