SCHOOL SONG. COMRADES ALL.

WORDS BY ELAINE GOODALE EASTMAN.

MUSIC BY ROBERT HIRD BOWERS.

Out of the darkness behind us,
Into the light before;
Out from the long separation,
In by the open door;
Here in an equal freedom
Victor and vanquished meet;
Here we have learned the lesson—
Duty may crown defeat.

This was the land of our fathers,
Centuries long to rove—
Must we be alien and homeless,
Here on the soil we love?
No! for the future beckons
Out of our old alarms,
Out of the tribal fetters,
Into the nation's arms!

CHORUS.

Comrades all, a loyal hearted band,
Comrades all, together let us stand,
True to each other and to our native land,
True to each other and to our native land!
Comrades all, a loyal hearted band,
Comrades all, together let us stand,
True to each other and to our native land,
True to each other and to our native land!
