Band Song.

I

Who was it went to Washington
Upon Old March the fourth
To place the President upon
Our Nation's throne, of course.
Who brought from Teddy such a smile—
Perhaps he's got it yet;
Way out in darkest Africa
While on his hunting trip.

CHORUS:

It was the Band;
It was the Band.
Would you think it when
You see them toot away so grand?
It was the Band;
It was the Band.
Oh we're always in demand.
The Carlisle Band.

II

Who was it went to Long Branch shore
In nineteen six and seven,
To charm the multitude galore
And stay out nights till 'leven.
Who paraded with the firemen
For miles and thought it fun?
And with the Elks at Philly, when
H'lo Bill got on the bum.

Chorus—

III

Who always plays at sociables
And football games and such,
And flags salutes and Institutes
And goodness knows how much.
Who goes to Gimbel's once a year,
And other places too,
And holds an annual banquet here
Our friendships to renew.

Chorus—
