Enoch Acker.

Once upon the time there were three children playing house keeping, among them were Enoch Acker, Philip Ray and Annie Lee.

They lived in England and were brought up to be grown people.

At one time Enoch and Annie went in the woods together and Philip came along and saw them. Philip turned back and not showing himself to them. Philip loved Annie, but he didn't show it. Enoch spoke to her about the marriage awhile they were in the woods.

Enoch married Annie and he made a home for her when he was twenty years of age.

The family had three children, but the younger one died.

Enoch prepared for a trip to China, Annie was broken hearted, she didn't want him to go away. She knew he would never return again.

Enoch left plenty of things for Annie and he thought she would yet along very nicely a while he were away.

Brock started off one morning and the ship loaded with things of which he took to China. The ship was broken on his way home, and he escape to come Island and he remain there ten years.
The ship came along one day and took Brock back to his home. While he was away Annie and her children became very poor. Annie didn't know how to keep up with the business which he had left for her.

Philip discovered that Brock had left Annie for ten years and he knew that Annie and the children were very poor now at this time. So one day Philip asked Annie if he could take the children and put them to school. Annie told him it would be so much better for them to go to school. Philip put the children to school. The children loved Philip just like a father. Finally Philip asked Annie if he could marry her if Brock does not return in short time. Annie told him to wait one year longer. A year and half passed Brock yet not return. Philip and Annie were married then and had one child.
After that happened Brock returned home and knew that Philip had married his wife Annie. Brock did not want Annie

There once lived in England of three children girls name was Annie Lee and the boys names were Enock Arden and Philip Ray. They used to play house keeping, when playing Enock used to say Annie is my wife also Philip say Annie is my wife, Annie did not know which was her husband so she told them that both of them would be her husband.

When they grow up Annie married Enock Arden living four or five years they had three children, Then Enock Arden worked in the ship being a good man so the last appoint him to take charge of the vessel, so he was sent to China he bid his children and wife good bye and told her that he will see her again he kissed her and two children but the smallest one was asleep so he did not want to bother her but he kissed her. Then he sailed for China he got to China safe he bought some presents for his children toys books and etc.

Then he sailed back to England where his home was, on the way home the ship wreck, three of them swim to the Island and were safe but far from home here they stay hungry and they build a hut two left lonely and hungry, Annie did not hear from her husband than so she thought Enock was dead.

Enock and his partner lived on the Island till about a year after his partner died Enock was lived alone for ten years he lived on berries.

Enock was poor he wanted to sent his children to school but he had no money than he worked in the ship just to earn money to support his family.

Philip went to see Annie one day Philip asked her that he would to take care of ~~the~~ her children and so he can put them to school. Philip was interest in the children but one got sick and died. One day the children were going nutting they asked Philip to go with them he refused but the next time he went the children enjoy the walk. Annie and Philip took a rest on the shade the same place where Enock and Annie were sitting one time. And Philip asked her that he would like to marry her but Annie said wait till next year if Enock will not be back and I will marry you than they went home. Annie waited and waited Enock never come, the year pasted and a half Philip was wishing to marry Annie so he could help her. After a year and half passed Enock did not return, so Annie married Philip the children grow up since there father left them but they were small when he left them, and they did n't know who was there father, so they called Philip their father because he was taking care of them.

While Enock was on the Loneisle for ten years he used to go out to open place and sit there if he could see any body coming but no one came, One day he went out again he saw a ship coming the people on the ship wanted some water and they went for the Island there they found a man long hair can't talk no one knew him he couldn't talk to them he forgot it all he was on the Island so long. So they put him on the ship and take him across the Ocean. He reach the place where he start ten years ago.

He went to search for his home but no one was living there he walk down the street he came to the house and he looked in he saw some one was living in the house he went to the back door to look who was in there he saw Philip Ray sitting one boy standing and the other girl sitting on the left side and lady sitting on the other side. He said to him self that is my wife and children so he did nit know what to do and where to go so he walked up he came to the house he went in it was Miriam Lane he boarded there and got sick worse and worse so he told Miriam Lane that she might go and till his wife to sent her two children over before he dies and he gave her a hair of his child which he kept for ten years since he left for china. When he left for china his wife cut a bunch of hair from her child the smallest one. This he gave to Miriam Lane so his wife can think that Enoch is not dead yet and Enoch is back alive and told her that Annie should not come one day as Annie Lee and Philip Ray & Enoch Arden were playing keeping house by the shore the boys began to quarrel because they both wanted Annie to be their wife. And Annie said that she would be a wife to both of them.

Then Miriam left he waited till his death came three days afterwards he died.

After they had grown up Enoch married Annie and after some time he began to get poor and he had many troubles. And when he saw that he could not support Annie and his children. He wanted to go to China with a man, he thought he would get rich and come home and educate his children as he liked. But Annie did not want him to go but he thought that he must and after bidding Annie & his children goodbye he left. He got to China alright and when they were coming home their ship was wrecked. Enoch and two other men happened to get to some island.

After they were on this island sometime the two men died and left Enoch all by himself. He knew he would have to stay here till some ship could come & help him.

All the time Enoch was on this island - Annie had been having trouble and one of her children had died.

Philip had taken pity on her, he sent her children to school and helped her all he could.

Philip had married Annie some time afterward and were living very happy. They had one little child.

After ten years on this island Enoch returned and learned that Annie had married Philip. He did not make himself known after his return.

One night he went to the home of Annie and looked through the windows and there he saw Philip with his baby playing together. In one corner he saw Annie and his daughter. Enoch felt very sorry but he crept quietly away to his tavern and after working around there for sometime he died.

When he was dying he told Mariam White who he was and asked her not to tell Annie until after he had died and that his children to come to his funeral but not Annie.

About several hundred years ago, Enoch Arden, Annie Lee, and Philip Ray, were playing keeping house. They are all playing along the sea shore. When they all children. They have three houses, and living on the england shore.

And after awhile Enoch Arden was married to Annie Lee.

They living on the england shore.

When Enoch Arden has gone away Annie Lee has married to Philip Ray. She done this because she thought Enoch was dead.

Enoch was lost one day, when he was twenty one years old.

He built his home to Annie and when they sailed from England to China. The ship was wrecked and all were drowned, but Enoch and two others were safe in a lone sloop. Miriam Lane also lived along the England shore. Enoch lived on the Island for ten years.

When they return from China the ship has wrecked.

Enoch Arden

Once upon a time there lived three playmates along the shores of old England. The three playmates were Enoch Arden Philip Ray & Annie Lee.

These playmates used to play together nearly every day, along the sandy shores of England. The three mates played keeping house, Annie would be the wife of Philip one day the next day would be the wife of Enoch they kept this up until they became to know of self interest.

After a while the day came when love was born between the three, the unlucky one was Philip Ray, for he loved Annie, also did Enoch but Enoch was the lucky one.

One day there was a party formed for chestnuting over the mountains. Philip was a little late for the crowd had started when Philip got to Annies house.

The reason Philip was so late was because his mother was very sick, he had a little more work to do.

So he started off on his journey when he got to the place he was surprised to see such a fine place, the grove was filled with different kinds of nuts and many dead logs lying here and there, all of a sudden he saw the crowd, and away off one side there he saw Enoch & Annie side by side, he ^{was} amazed when he saw them, but he stood still for a moment, and finely sneaked off towards home, down hearted and broken for the love of Annie.

When Enoch and Annie were of age ^{were} ~~they~~ married and settled down to a new life for them two years went on with peace and happiness.

Enoch commenced building a boat of his own, which he said that when the children ^{were} grown up he will run to and from the Islands. They had three children two girls and one boy.

When the children were grown up it ~~time~~ ~~for~~ was time for them to have an education. And Enoch was in a kind of hard up for he had no way to educate his children.

One day a friend of Enoch came to him and said that do you want a good job I have one for you if you don't mind in working. Enoch was a good sailor in his young days of his life.

Before Enoch started out for his job he said that he will sell all of his things when he starts.

So one day Enoch started for his job on the ship act as a ship Captain. He sold every thing that he had in order to give Annie a little start in store keeping.

Annie kept up the store business for a while but finely she sold the goods cheaper than what she payed for them the years has passed away, Annie was in a poor condition the children were falling away, Herhus land was far away in China.

Enoch had bad luck on his returning from China the ship that he was had much while coming back. Most of the passengers were drowned only three were ~~say~~ saved, one of them was Enoch.

Enoch landed on a small Island were he stayed for ten years, during his time on the

on the Island he forgot how to talk

One day he saw a ship going along some of the Islands near by he made signs for them to come near him, ^{and} they did ~~not~~ come towards him he swam out to boat a ^{rod} got into it, he couldn't express him self, after while he got his language back to him again he told the sailors what had happened to him, he didn't know where he was going. After they had anchored the Cnoch got off and ^{went} towards his old homestead but when he had reach the old place was gone to pieces.

Annie has married Philip Pay. they ^{lived} in a large Place before when Cnoch died he said that he sends all his love to ^{the} whole family.

Story of Enoch Arden.

A hundred years ago.

There were three children playing the house keeping on the sea shore.

Three children of three houses.

The first house Annie Lee.

The second house Philip Ray the miller's son.

The third house Enoch Arden.

Enoch was a rough sailor lad also he was mischievous. After several years these children were full grown to be man and the young lady.

One time there were two young man and the young lady in the house of Enoch.

Enoch he became discouraged because he did not like Philip very well so Enoch he decided to get married to Annie.

Enoch said this is my house and this is my little wife mine too." I said Philip.

Enoch and Philip they quarrel'd about the lady. Annie prayer them not to quarrel for her sake. Annie told Enoch and Philip she will be the little wife of both.

Annie she seems she loved Philip best than Enoch. Shortly afterward Annie she ^{was} married to Enoch. But still Philip loved Annie in secret. When the seven year after Enoch he became big family.

Enoch stayed with his wife about seven years than he made his mine to go to China so he did.

Philip came to Enoch's place.

Philip came to see Enoch wife and also Philip he was very much interested the children.

Philip took the children into the woods for pleasure.

Children liked Philip they called him father Philip.

Philip put children to school to be educated.

That ~~a~~ 10 years after Annie and Philip were married Annie she did not know what became of Enoch she thought Enoch was dead or lost.

Because Enoch he did not come home about ten years. The reason was Enoch his vessel was wrecked on the lone isle a long ten years. When he came home he did not come to his home but he came Marrian Jane place Marrian she was the widow.

Marrian told Enoch what happen to his place.

Enoch ~~when he~~ heard this matter he became discouraged and died.

Enoch was very glad to see his children were big and tall and beautifull.

This is the end of the story.

Enoch Arden.

Several hundred years ago, they were three children playing along the shore. Their names were Annie Lee, Philip Ray, and Enoch Arden.

These children lived in the different houses.

They were playing keeping house. Enoch would keep house for one day, and Philip would keep house for the next day. But Annie Lee didn't do anything but play.

These children spent many happy years together. One day these children were going out into the woods. Philip's father was sick, and so Philip had to stay home with his father.

But Enoch, and Annie went out into the woods. After a while Philip saw Enoch and Annie setting together out in the woods. But Philip said nothing to them. Philip knew, Annie liked Enoch better than Philip.

After few years, Philip went away.

Then they were only two left, just Enoch, and Annie.

When Enoch was 21 years of age, he made a home for Annie Lee. Enoch and Annie were married then. They had three children, and he was offord to take charge of the ship to go to China. Enoch was suffering to take charge the ship, to earn little money to educated his children.

Enoch told Annie cheer up before I go, but Annie didn't want Enoch to go away from home.

She told Enoch, she will never see him again.

Enoch told Annie that he was coming back, and he told her, he will be back to see her again.

He told Annie keep the children and yourself safe until I come back.

Enoch got in the boat, and sailed away on the blue sea.

Annie stood by the shore and watched the ship until it got ^{out} of sight.

Before he reached to China, the ship wreck.

Enoch land to lone isle in the sea.

They he stayed for many years.

One day Philip came to Annies house.

Philip aske Annie were is Enoch? Annie told Philip about Enoch going to China, and has not return, And she has not heard from him since he left.

Philip Asked Annie if she would marry him.

But Annie said nothing for while, but her answer was to waite for a year.

Philip told Annie he would take interest in the children, just as if they were his own.

For ten years Annie had been waiting for Enoch to come home, but he had not appear.

Philip and Annie waited for Enoch a year and half.

Befor Annie was married to Philip. One child of Enochs died. Then she only had two children, It was the son and daughter.

They long waite, Philip and Annie were married.

After Annies marriage to Philip, A little baby was born.

Enoch was on the island for ten years.

He had forgotten how to talk, and he had long hair. One day he happened to see the ship coming near the Island. So he called to them, but he could not talk. He understood what they said, but they could not understand him.

He got on the ship and sail for home ward.

Nobody knew him after he came back. He went to the house were he left his wife and children.

But he fine no one there, he thought maybe they were all dead. Then he went on little farther on, there he fine the house were Annie and the children were living.

They he came the back ward, and looked in.

The first he saw his daughter standing by her mother, tall and slim. He saw his son big and tall. He knew they were his children, but they did not know him.

He did not go into the house, because he did not want to let Annie and Philip know that he was back.

After a few days he was home he got sick, and he called to Miriam Lane, he sent message to Annie and the children.

He told that the children may come and see him after he was dead.

But he said for not let Annie come to see him. He died three days after.

Enock arden.

Once upon a time there were three children their names were, Enock arden, Phillip Ray, and annie Lee. They were playing house, and when Enock grew up to be a man, he married annieLee. After awhile he engaged in going to China. Now ever he left and he went on to China & on the way back the ship was wrecked. Enock and two other men were saved and swam to an island near by. The other two died from exhaustion. Enock was walking on the shore one day, he saw a boat, then he swam out to it and he went home to England. He got home, and he did not want to let annie know he was back. Because he didn't want to spoil her home by taking her away from there. One day he crept up to the back windows and saw annie ³⁰ and Phillip sitting there with ^{their} son and daughter. He crept away again and went to a tavern. And told the keeper whose name was Mariam Lane that he had saw Annie.

after a while Enoch died, and Annie didn't know it was Enoch that was buried. He let her know that it was him after he died by sending her a curl which he got before he left home. The curl was given to Annie by Mariam Lane.

Many years ago in England three children were playing keeping house, they were Annie Lee, Philip Kay Enoch Aiden. Philip used to claim that Annie was his wife, and so did Enoch.

When they grew up Enoch was married to Annie Lee. some years after Enoch was given a position on a ship going to China he was to take charge of the ship. he agreed, as he knew he would make money to send his children to school. So Enoch put up a little store for his family so as they may have something to make with whilst he was away.

So Enoch went off to China on his way home they had a shipwreck. Enoch swam to an island. He lived on fruits and wild meat for ten years. and after the ten years a ship landed at the island to get in water. they send out a few men to look for water out on the island and Enoch came to them. at first he could not speak for he hadn't spoke for ten years.

but they soon found out he could speak and he told his story and where was from and they took him back to his home. As he layed he went straight to where he had left the family but they moved from it. So he went to ~~the~~ house

Enoch Arden.

About a hundred years ago there were three children who use to play to gather their names were Annie Lee, Philip Ray and Enoch Arden.

They use to play house at the mouth of a cave near the beach.

Philip would claim Annie as his wife one day and Enoch the next. When they had grown up Enoch married Annie. He lived with Annie for several years. While he was at sea he broke one leg and was compelled to stop his work.

He was getting unable to support his family.

While he was suffering he was given an offer to go to China and take charge of a merchant's ship. When the day came Enoch sailed away for China and left Annie and his three little children. When he arrived at China he bought some toys to bring home for his children.

On his way back there was a storm at sea and the ship was wrecked there were only three men saved on the ship Enoch Arden and two men. These three men managed to get to the shore of an island. While on the island two men died and left Enoch alone. He was on the island for ten years and had forgot how to talk.

Ten years had passed away and Philip asked Annie if she wouldn't marry him. She told him to wait another year. After the year was passed Philip went to Annie and told her the time is come for us to wed but she told him to wait another month. He waited but the time came and they were wed. Enoch was away now for about 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ years. Philip took Annie and the children to their new home. Philip was a man of wealth.

It was now about the twelfth year and Enoch had now returned to his home again.

When he got to his house where he had left Annie he found she was not there so he went to the tavern and peeped in the back way and saw Annie and his own children sitting around comfortably in a well furnished house he went to Miriam Lane and she told him how Annie had married Philip.

He worked around the tavern till he fell sick and had to be bed fast.

His children were now going to school and were being educated. He did not let Annie know he was back to do so he thought he would raise a great commotion and break the happiness of their lives to sorrow.

While he was sick he told Miriam have not to let Annie know he was back till he died. He said that his children could come to see him when he was dead but Annie could not come.

He sent a little lock of hair to Annie so that she would believe that it was Enoch Arden.

He was a kind hearted man and did not make any disturbance between Annie and Philip. He died and thus ended the life of Enoch Arden.

Enock Arden.

Several hundred years ago there lived three children in England, their names were Annie Lee, Philip Ray, Enock Arden.

They were all children and always like to play house keeping. Annie would be a wife to one of them one day they would take turns in being a wife. She was always kinder to Philip Ray but she loved Enock Arden more.

Soon after they grew old enough to take care of themselves they were married. That disappoint Philip Ray. After they were keeping house for one whole year, Enock Arden went through many hardships. He lost all his wealth.

But soon he was offered to be a Captain on a ship for China, which took him a great while to decide whether he could stand to leave his children. But he decided he would go so that he could earn some money to support his family. After Enock left Annie thought she would never get to see her husband again.

But he said when he left that he would come back to see her and the children.

He was gone for ten long years which all that time he was on the island with his ship.

Annie never heard from him after he left so she thought that he was killed.

And so she married another wealthy man and that was Philip Ray which took great interest with her and also the children

After she married Philip Ray she lived very comfortably. Then he came back he heard that Annie had married again. So he went to a tavern and stayed there. And one night he went to this place. And saw Annie and her children and the other man sitting there in a room. He looked through a window and saw all of this. He thought he would never

Several hundred years ago, three children were playing keeping house by the shore, two boys and one girl, the boys were Enock Arden and Phillip Ray and Annie Lee.

Enock was the master of the play, both of these two boys were very fond of Annie, and pretty little Annie was kinder to Phillip than to Enock.

One day Enock started to build a ship, and took a long long time getting down, this he called his house.

When Enock was twenty one years of age, he build a house for Anna, and shortly after they got married.

Enock was not a wealthy man he suffered hardships of life.

Enock was given him an offer to sail to China, and of course as he thought this was a chance for him to earn his better life, he excepted this appointment.

His wife Annie was very sorry when she heard about this, she believed she shall never see him again, but to encourage her he told her he'll see her again.

Enock sold his ship which he made when they were only play mats and bought some goods for his wife to sell and keep her comfort while he was gone.

As Annie Lee, Enock's wife was not educated enough to know how to carry out this business she did not succeed, some times she sold the goods half less price than what Enock paid for.

In that way they ^{turned} out to be poor family.

After ten long years Enock had gone Annie believed he was either killed or shipwrecked and drowned her husband, so she married Philip Way and lived happy ever after.

Several hundred years ago Philip Ray, Annie Lee, and Enock Arden lived along the England shore. Often times their were capt home to be house keepers while the folks were away. Their play was house keeping. After years living on this England shore. One day Enock made up his mind he was going to go to China. Enock and four other men started one day they enjoy going to. But on they return coming home they were wreck.

Enock and two other men were saved Enock was hurt although he got to the shore or island. The other two men died. Enock lived there for ten years. He did not speak to anybody all that years. On the ten year one day a ^{sister} stop along the shore. These men ask him who was ^{he} and where he was from. This Enock could not speak to them. But the men understand him that he wanted to go along with them by Enock nodding his head.

After sailing some ~~desetance~~ while the ^{men was} speaking to him he got all the word again. Then he speak to them. And told all ^{that} happen to him. When he got home he found that his wife was married to Philip Ray. His wife thought that when Enock was gone for some years not knowing where he was so she got married to Philip Ray. Last words Enock said was, "I bless my children."

Several years ago there were three children, there were Annie Lee, Philip Ray, and Enoch Arden.

They lived in England and then went to China. They used to play keeping house, and as they grew up Enoch Arden and Philip Ray got married. A year after Philip had married Enoch Arden, Enoch left Philip.

After Enoch left Philip she went to Lone Isle in sea.

He was on the island for ten years, and did not know any body to speak to. He was very lone-some and had to get a wild meat and fruit to eat himself.

He got a hut for him self and there he lived there all a lone.

Philip wanted a possession and one of the men there gave him one.

He told him to take charge of the ship and then the ship was wrecked he was killed.

When Enoch returned home again he saw his wife, and didn't know how to talk, because he has been all lone for ten year he had forgotton how to talk.

When Philip was in the ship he saw Children there, and so that is why he got interesting in the children.

They had three children, one died and the other two grew up.

Enoch Arden, Annie Lee and Philip Ray, "the miller's son," were playing keeping house one time when they were children and grew up together, so when they were old enough to marry, so Philip and Enoch ~~were~~ married.

After they were married they keep house for themselves and they had a few children when they moved to some other place to live.

They traveled on water for sometimes ^{many} temptations and hardships were they met, so one night they stopped on the shore to rest, and he prayed to God.

Finally some man come to him and offered him if he can go to China on a ship, for Philip was hurt, and he didn't want to leave his family but he decided to go, so as to earn wages for his family and got a trade for his wife before he left so she can help herself.

So he went and many days did he traveled on water and thinking of his family which he left behind him.

On his way home the ship wrecks and both of his companions ~~were~~ ~~killed~~ ~~killed~~ died he was left alone.

It happens to be close to the Island and Philip swam to the shore of this Island and he spent ten years and he had nobody to talk to, when he was found he could not talk, he forgotten how to talk.

At the end of ten years, a ship stopped to take up water and few men came out side and they saw this man and took him in the ship and took him home.

He did not know anybody and nobody knows him for he had long hair.

So he marries Annie Lee and told his difficulties on his trip and told her about his children for Annie didn't believe that was him.

So they decided to marry if Enoch didn't return in one year, so one year was up and Enoch didn't come so they married half a year later.

Enoch sitting together This disconage him.

After they grew up to be a man Enoch and Annie was married Enoch had no money to spoil his wife and his children Enoch was hurt on ship. And told the people that he had no ^{money} to keep his children. The man that own the ship ask him if he could take charge of the ship which was going to china. He was anxious to take it because he thought he would make money. Annie knowing that Enoch was going to china she said she'll never see her again. Enoch said he will see her in future. Annie ask Enoch how she could make money to keep her children. Enoch bought things for Annie that she might sell to make there living.
Enoch was going away he told Annie to smile for he will see ^{her} sweet smiling face again Annie gave Enoch some of the hair which she cut off of one of her children. Saying Good Bye Enoch sailing away. Annie could not keep up the trade which Enoch left her. While Enoch was away one of his youngest children died. While Annie was living alone with her children. Philip came to her one day. He was interest in the children. Philip ask her if she would marry him. Annie said she after waited a year and half for Enoch might come home. After they were married. He educated the children. After that the children called him Father Philip. After he reached China and on return the ship was wrecked. Enoch and two other man were save on the island of lone Isle. The other two died. Enoch lived on fruit. One day ship came by and brought him back. He could not talk for he had no one to talk to for ten years. After he came home every thing change. Annie was gone. He didn't know where to go. He came to town to board. The women's name was Miriam Lane. He went to see Annie. But he was afraid to go in he was looking in through the window. Philip sitting on the chair holding one of Enoch's children on his lap. One of his boy grew up. was standing beside Annie was sitting aside. Enoch cried and prayed that Annie shouldn't know that he come back. Enoch was sick and he called for his children. He did not want Annie to come. He told Miriam Lane to take the hair which Annie gave to Enoch when he was going to China.

to know that he had returned. He went to Philip's house and saw his wife and children, but Annie didn't know that was Enoch. When he came out from the house and out of sight the gate he prayed for Annie and his children.

Enoch then went back home and when he reached home he took sick. He told Marian Lane all about his trip to China and every thing that happened before, but told her not to tell Annie until after his death. Enoch died after he had finished telling her. Marian Lane did all she was told.

Several hundred years ago there lived three children in England that used to play along the shore their names were as follows Enoch Arden Philip and Annie Lee.

This three children used to play keeping house and some times Enoch and Philip would quarrel over Annie because they both claimed Annie to be their wife but Annie tells them she would be wife for both.

During one Autumn season there was a party going out for nutting and Philip could not go with them right away he had to keep house so when Philip went and reached the woods he saw Enoch and Annie sitting on a stone and he turned away he was very much hurt.

Finely Enoch married Annie and they where living well until Enoch went out on exhibitions and during their exhibition he was hurt when he came home he was complaining about it he was wondering how he was going to make a living.

There was a man that lived in this town where Enoch lived who owned a ship that was going to China and this man offered Enoch to take charge of the ship going to China.

Enoch excepted the man's offer and when he was about to leave his wife said that when he left she did not expect to see him again and he said he would see her again and he did but Annie did not so both were right.

Enoch sold his ship and gave the money to his wife to live on till he got back and she tried to keep store but she did not succeed.

Enoch reached China all right but coming back the ship wasrecked on an Island.

Enoch and two other men where left on this Island the two men died shortly after that than Enoch was left alone for ten years during the ten years he had know one to talk to so he forgot how to talk and he had to hunt for his living and the sun was so hot on this Island that Enoch looked like an Negra when he came home.

Finely one day a ship come to this Island after fresh water and Enoch saw these men comming and he went to see them he could not understand them but they could not understand him

So Enoch showed them where the waters was and when they were ready to go they took Enoch back with them.
I will drop Enoch for a while and go back to Philip.

When Enoch come away from his home his wife did her best to keep her family in good order and finely Philip Ray came to help her he send the children to school and treated them as if they were his children see how kind a person can be.

One Autumn season the children were going out to pick nuts and Annie was going to aot the children begged Philip to go to so he went and Annie and Philip were resting on the same place where Enoch and Annie set some time ago and Philip remembered it some time after Philip asked Annie if she would marry him and she said wait a year if Enoch dont return then she would marry Philip so they did The time seemed to go fast to Annie for she was surprised when Philip rane to her again and asked her the same question a year ago and they waited year and half before they where married.

Now I will go back to Enoch.
When Enoch come home very thing had changed he went to his old home and found different family there than he thought that Annie was dead so inquired and found that Philip had married Annie so one day Enoch sneaked around Philip's house and looked in and saw Annie and the children the baby on Philip's legs Enoch went back home and shortly after that he was taken sick and he knew he was going to die so so he called Morriam Lane she came and he told her all about Annie and the children and himself and when he had told her all about it she was going to call Annie but he told her not to and lie ^{her} good branch of him which Annie had given him before he left he did so Annie would not doubt that it was Enoch
And his last words was

Enoch Arden

Over a hundred years ago in England on the beach of the ocean.

There were three children at play by name of Annie Lee, Philip Ray and Enoch Arden.

The children would play house using a cave in the cliff.

Annie would be wife for Philip one day and Enoch the next day, but Enoch being the strongest of the two would hold possession for a week or so.

After growing up Enoch married Annie, he built himself a ship went cruising around on the seas, while out on the ocean an accident befell him while climbing a mast he slipped and fell which broke his leg and laid him up for some time here poverty stared him in the face, he had to part with his ship or his white-horse as he called it.

In order to buy food for his family after recovering from his lameness, he found employment on a vessel bound to China, he reached China safely when on the return voyage the ship was caught in a storm the crew were shipwrecked Enoch with another man were cast on shore of an island the rest of the crew were drowned. Enoch friend died shortly afterward which left him alone.

Here he remained for ten long years, seeing no human being in that time.

All this time at Enoch's home Philip was asking for the hand of Annie or Enoch's wife.

Annie had waited these ten long years for Enoch's return she told Philip to wait another year after the time expired Philip went to Annie again she then told him to ^{wait} six months after nine was up Philip married Annie and they lived happy.

In the island Enoch had stayed so long he had forgotten how to talk.

One day a ship came in sight. She wanted water a crew came for the water here they saw Enoch long haired long bearded they brought him to the ship.

Here he told them his story which he uttered brokenly the ship took him to his home in England.

He went directly to his own home to see if his family were still there the house was vacant he saw a bill of sale posted on the building.

He then went to the tavern which was kept by a widow a Miriam Jane.

Here he stayed for one year working at odd jobs. One night he stole over to where Philip lived and saw his son and daughter his wife, Enoch told Miriam Jane who he was told her to keep the secret till after his death. In a short while Enoch died.

The Enoch Arden was offered a trip to China and so he sold his ship and set Annie into business and he went to China. They got over all right but coming back the ship was wrecked.

Enoch Arden and two other men were saved and the rest were drowned.

Enoch and his two friends got to an island and the two men died and Enoch did not.

He stayed there about ten years and he lived on berries wild meats and he forgot how to talk.

Philip Ray wanted to marry Annie now. But she told him to wait one year more and then she told him to wait a half a year more. Then he married her.

They lived a happy life.

A ship came to the island where Enoch was and found him and took him on board.

After Enoch go home he went to the house where he left Annie and the children But they were gone She soon found out where she was and soon after that he lied before he left he said that the children could come and see but he did not want her to come.

Enoch Arden's life.

Enoch Arden was a sailor's son and Phillip Ray, and Annie Lee were his playmates.

They lived on the shore of England at time and they used to play house at the mouth of a large cave on the shore.

Every day they would meet there and began playing house Annie Lee said she would be wife to them both to Enoch one day and to Phillip the next day and soon.

Finally Enoch fell in love with Annie and one a party of young folks went out nutting and Phillip was detained because his father was very sick.

After Phillip was through he started back for the picnic and when he got near by to where the picnic was, he saw Annie and Enoch sitting under an hazel tree he didn't want them to see him so he ran off and went to the picnic ground in another direction.

Enoch and Annie got married after a little while and they lived together very happy and contented with their home.

They kept a little store and sometimes Annie would sell things for half their price.

because she didn't know the cost of everything in the store.

One day a merchant asked Knock if he would take charge of his ship and sail to China for him. Knock accepted the offer and ~~then~~^{at} began preparing for the voyage and getting provisions ready and every thing else that might be needed on the ship.

When he was ready to start he told Annie to run to the shore and watch the ship go by.

He then kissed Annie ^{and} his children good bye and when the time came for the ship to pass Annie ran ^{to} the shore and watched the ship as it sailed by the shore that he would not see for a good while.

Annie waved and waved and yet she could not see him because she did not know how to arrange the field glass which she held in her hand.

They sailed on till finally they reached China in a good condition and they began at once to buy provisions and things for his children.

While they were on their ~~back~~^{way} back a terrible storm came upon them and their was wrecked Knock and two other men escaped and reached an island.

When they reached the island they saw nothing but a dense forest and nothing but animals and fowls living on it.

They were very hungry and lonesome one of the men died and then there were only two of them left on the island and finally the other man died and Enoch was left alone upon the island where not a soul was to be seen or a sound to be heard,

There was nothing but the sounds and echos of animals.

Enoch sad and lonely sat upon the island thinking about his poor wife and children thinking of how he was ever going to get home.

One day he saw a ship and there was a small vessel rowing toward the shore of the island, perhaps they were seeking for some fresh water to drink.

Enoch saw them coming closer and closer and he waved at them and they came to where he was but Enoch had forgotten how to talk and he could not tell the men his story but by motions.

The men took Enoch on their vessel and took him on board the ship.

The captain asked Enoch if he was an Englishman and Enoch's tongue was loosened and he then told them his story and when they reached the shore of England they let Enoch off and he started out to find his home which he left many years ago. When he got there he saw no lights no one was there.

Enoch didn't know what to do so he went to a tavern near by.

He wanted to see his wife and children so bad that he started out to find them.

He went to Phillip's place and he opened the gate and went in and he looked in from outside he saw Anne and his three children all enjoying themselves in Phillip's beautiful palace.

He saw his daughter the very image of his wife and he saw his son, tall and noble, looking, standing there in the palace.

He did not want to go in for fear he would disturb them during their happiness, so he climb to the roof and watched them so after a while he turned away and went out the gate as quite as a person leaving a sick person's room.

When he got outside of the gate he knelt down and prayed for them and he asked

Isod to help him to keep away from Annie if so she would not get frightened.

He then went back to the Tavern where he was boarding and he told the Tavern keeper, Miriam Lane, all about his voyage and troubles and he asked her if she ever knew Enoch Arden, and she said she knew of him some time ago and he told her that it is he who she knew.

And she was glad to hear that it was Enoch and he asked her if she would promise not to tell Annie that he was back and she said that she would keep his promise, but she wanted to tell Annie about it, but she made up her mind that she would not tell.

Enoch was boarding at this Tavern and working for people around there in order that he might earn a little money.

One day he took sick and he knew that he would not live long so he asked Miriam Lane if she would give Annie a lock of hair which Annie gave him just as he was leaving for China sometime ago, which she cut from the baby's head.

He also told her that he didn't want Annie to come and see him when he died but he wanted his children but they didn't know their father Enoch because he

he left them when they were but children they now called Phillip their father.

Enoch loved Annie so much that he was glad to see Annie living with Phillip he knew that Phillip married her because she was not able to keep herself and the children, ~~so~~ Phillip married her simply because he did not want to see them starve or die in poverty.

Enoch died without seeing any of his family, it was over eleven years since he had seen his wife to speak to. This was the end of Enoch's life.

Enoch Arden.

1. Seven hundred years ago there were three children playing on house keeping house. Annie Lee, Philip Ray & Enoch Arden.

As they grow up Annie Lee & Enoch Arden become great friend or they love one other. Years after they were married they were living happy together.

Enoch's trip

As Enoch is not able to work one of his friend on ship ask Enoch if he like to take charge that ship which was going to China of course he was willing to go he will be pay for water the things. So they said away to the China they get there all right, but when they were returning home the ship was wreck out in the sea.

But Enoch get to the island he was all alone no body to talk to lonesome and home sick but no way to get home he was thinking for this wife and children he wish he will see the children again.

Ten years on Island.

He was ten years this island he forgot how to talke this language.

Enoch's wife, hoping that he will return but no siger of Enoch.

Firly Philip Ray came to the house he saw Annie was heart breaked he ask her what was the trouble she told him all about, That Enoch gone fore ten years, she haven tearles from him. but Philip aske Annie if Enoch will not come back in year time if she promise him that she will marie him.

Years time, Annie aske "yes years." she told him to wait years the haff then she will marie him so Philip wait year haff longer.

So Philip and Annie were married

But Enoch still out in the island all this time Annie & Philip thought Enoch was died.

4. Enoch returning home

So one day the ship came along to the shores to get water they saw Enoch but he can not talk, but he can understand, so they took him back to England. Enoch was home again he went down to see this house he get there saw somebody else living in this house.

He wonder, about this wife and children, but he fine out that Annie wife of Enoch Marrie to Philip.

Enoch want down one evening to see if he could see this children and wife he saw through the window he saw this daughter stander by Philip and this son was on the other side.

b. Staying

He staid with Miriam Jane after he was over to see this wife and children but they did not see him short time after that he was taking sick he told Miriam after his death she may tell the children to come see this body if they want see but Annie must not come.

In spite of our defeat everyone returned to the school in high spirits, especially the girls, who felt that they had ^{and more} the time of their lives.
