Recall from study hour,	- - - - -	- - - - -	8:00

All bells must be governed by the clock in the hall of the Administration building.

Students are warned by the first bell to be at their places and ready, and must begin work promptly when the second bell taps, and then continue work without intermission to the ringing of the recall bell. Any employee wilfully failing to observe strictly the hours fixed above or to enforce them upon the students under their care, will be subject to discharge.

The first bells for school and meals are signals to fall in. Rolls are to be called and reports made before the second bell. Immediately upon the ringing of the second bell students must march off without delay.
