My dear Sir :

Your bill is $53.75. Somebody ought to be punished for selling that amount of goods to an Indian, or any amount of goods to one of my Indian students without a note from me. Walter Komah has only $37.95 to his credit here. He spends his money as fast as he receives it from home. We do not require them to save their home money. He had $50.00 in March which is all gone. We require them to save half of what they earn. I think your better way would be to get some lawyer to write him a very sharp letter and threaten to haul him up before the court. Your bill is returned.

Yours truly,
