

110 Columbia Heights,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

March 7, 1895.

My dear Captain Pratt:

Your letter and its enclosure came as a surprise to me but after some hesitation I have decided to accept the check as you send it. You must accept my thanks in turn and believe that if I rendered you a service at the school, the school rendered us one. Our visit was a great pleasure and benefit to us.

Thank you and your daughter for the letter of introduction which you have given to Mr. Landis. I met his mother at the commencement exercises and she said that she hoped her son would call. I, too, hope that he will: I shall be glad to make his acquaintance. After next Monday, I hope to be at home quite regularly for the purpose of meeting young men in a quiet social way.

Please give our regards to Mrs. Pratt and your daughter. We shall all be glad wh when you come our way again.

Yours very sincerely,

Lynna Abbott

Captain R. H. Pratt.