My dear General Pratt

Anna wrote me a few days ago of your approaching birthday, the eightieth one, and told me your address & giving me the privilege of writing to visit you many happy returns of the day. I only wish I could be in Berkeley on the 7th to take you my congratu-lations in person. I re-often think of you and Mrs Pratt and of my happy visit with you in Washington last winter.

This winter I have just moved in to an apartment (Kitchen -ette) by myself but I have a divan in my sitting room which will enable me to have one and another of my sisters with me from time to time. I am quite in love with this way of life.

and am very comfortably fried. I wish you could ~~see~~ see it. Please give a great deal of love to Mrs Pratt and remember that you are both very often the objects of my most affectionate thoughts

Yours sincerely

Edith Agnew
