My dear Colonel Pratt.

I was very sorry to know from your letter of the 28th, that you were not well, and that your recent trip did not bring to you, the renewed health you had hoped for.
I must earnestly trust, your waning strength may return to you, ere the School opens in the Autumn, and that the Students may be given many years, of your wise and commanding influence, in the cause of Indian Industrial education. My delightful visit to the School in its early days, with dear Miss Susan Longstrech, is still fresh on memories' walls, and its constant progress, has always given me inexpressible pleasure - You can therefore readily understand when the booklet was received, with its "facts, figures, and pictures", I was more enthusiastic than ever, over the work accomplished, and still so efficiently maintained at Carlisle, under your Superintendency. I enclose my cheque for Five Hundred Dollars, requesting you to make use of the money, as you may think best, for your work - I would also ask you to acknowledge the receipt of the above, so soon as convenient, to my address,
