

585 Elgin Ave.,

Winnipeg, Canada, May 6, 1901.

Capt. H. R. Pratt,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir,

Miss Olafia Jóhannsdóttir asked me to translate the article she wrote about you, in "The Icelandic Patriotic Society's Almanac," of 1900. I have done so and there it is.

The article in question is written in a splendid style, and has, undoubtedly, lost considerably, in effect, through the translation. Still you will be able to see what she wrote about you, if not how well she did it.

Very truly yours,
Jóhann Bjarnason.