Gen. R. H. Pratt,
Berkeley, Calif.

My dear Sir:

I am this morning in receipt of your letter from Three Rivers, in which you mention that you were about to leave for some other point; and not being sure of your address, I am writing this to Berkeley, feeling sure that it will reach you without much delay.

I should be glad indeed to send you a copy of my present NATIONAL ROAD if you will let me know if you desire to have it sent to Berkeley. It will also be my pleasure to send you a copy of the book upon which I am now at work; but that will not be published until late this fall or perhaps in the early spring of 1918.

I shall be delighted to receive any good sharp photograph of yourself which Mrs. Pratt may be able to send from Baltimore. I take particular care of my engravings, especially as the cuts often run through several editions; and I would suggest, if it is not too late, that it might be well to give me, if possible, a choice among two or three.

Yours truly,
