

OBERLIN COLLEGE
OBERLIN, OHIO
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.

Nov. 26, 1900.

My dear Major and Mrs. Pratt;-

I reached home in the rain Saturday afternoon, greatly delighted to be with my family once more and full of reminiscences of the good times I had with you. I think I have wearied the family just a little with my tales of Carlisle and Gettysburg. We are all hoping to see you. I take pleasure in sending you an account of my "World Pilgrimage" as a souvenir of my visit and an expression of my kind regards. Please remember me cordially to your daughter. I hope she will think seriously of coming to Oberlin.

Very faithfully yours,

John Henry Barrows.

Major R. H. Pratt,

U. S. Indian Industrial School,
Carlisle, Penn.