My dear Sir:

I am in receipt of a book of Carlisle School, illustrated. It is a creditable work and will not only be a valued souvenir to the friends of Carlisle, but will attract the attention of others to the great work that is being done there. I thank you for it.

Truly yours,

My dear Captain.

Accept my thanks on behalf of the Office for the 50 copies of the Carlisle Pamphlet which came the day after the single copy which I have already acknowledged. It is an admirable setting forth of Carlisle's work and facilities which will gratify old friends and make new ones. The pamphlets are in great request in the Office.

Yours truly
