General R. F. Pratt, - Supt.

Dear General:

I sympathize with you in all of your trouble.

It certainly is very hard for each and all to have you so suddenly swept away from us in this manner, after so many years of faithful service in ^{the} uplifting of a race of people who need you.

In my estimation you are the strongest friend the Indian ever had, or ever will have; and have done far more to uplift them than any other living man.

May the words "Indians rise" ever live.

Very Sincerely
Bertha Carfield

Carlisle,

Pa.
