Ketchikan Alaska

Feb 18th 1912

M. Friedman Supt.,

Dear Sir,

I am here in Ketchikan washing ^{getting} 2.00 a day, I am sorry I missed the Arrow for nearly a month, Oh how happy I am when I heard that the foot team of 1911 had a good record,

Suppose the weather is cold down there, while we having fine and warm weather, once in the early part of December we had cold weather for about over a week

As yet, the buds
of the elder bushy brush are start to open, I haven't step on the ice for three years,

I hope Capt. Tharpe will have a stronger team than Burd had last year.

Will you kindly send me two spools of red and gold ribbons in your expenses and sent a bill with it. I want the one inch ribbons,

Address it here in Ketchikan

Yours truly friend

Chris Dalton
