My dear Mr. Friedman:

Some time ago I received some blanks from your office in regard to my record, &c. Very much as I would like to, I am sorry to say that I have not been a student of the Carlisle School.

While I was attending college in Ohio between 1894 and 1898, I used to visit the Carlisle School quite often as I was very much interested in all that Captain Pratt did for the Indians at the time.

Being myself one of the Indians and later on in my student career, I was privileged to take some little part in the deliberations of thoughtful men for the advancement of the Indian welfare. Today my interest in my race is very much deeper - so deep that I cannot fashion it myself! With reference to my people I believe that they are capable of Christianity, of Education, of Industry and of Law and Government.

This is my motto and is the goal toward which I am striving. With many good wishes, I am,

Yours sincere friend
Edward Marder
