Mr. Joseph S. Sheehan,

506 W. Fayette St., Baltimore, Md.

My dear Friend:

The letter you addressed to me right after the opening of the new year has been on my desk for some time. This reply to it has had to be delayed because of a stress of other work and because there have been so many other communications from our former students since the time I sent out my greeting for the Christmas time.

It is a satisfaction indeed to know that you give so much of the credit for your success to the lessons you learned at Carlisle and the impressions you gained by your contact with the earnest men and women who were your instructors. The spirit of gratitude manifested by you is evident in so many of the letters that have come to me, and the good will and co-operation of our former students cannot help but be an inspiration.

Let me thank you for the kind words you conveyed to me and may you enjoy abundant measures of health, happi-

Assuring you of my continued interest in your welfare, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Friedman, Supt.

I received your welcome letter and I am glad to say it fills my heart with joy, with your kind words of encouragements to one of Carlisle's struggling sons in a great city of Baltimore. Kind words cannot express my great happiness to realize that I am one in that body of young men of whom dear Carlisle is proud. Carlisle has given me something that no one cannot take from me. I thank my dear teachers and friends who gave me a good education at Carlisle. I have often thought how my teachers put their heart and soul to prepare me for the future and now I am living to their teachings and I am trying to live my life so that Carlisle will never regret the great interest she has taken in my welfare. The character that Carlisle has moulded for me and the great

He has instilled within me made me a fearless and a patient
it. I read the weekly paper, "The Carlisle Arrow," and the monthly magazine, The Redman, its stirring news of its great success and victorious aggregation of football warriors, headed by "captain" Jim Thope, who have won the admiration and respect of the whole country. Wishing Carlisle a most prosperous year. I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Joseph S. Sheehan.

Dear Mr. Friedman, Supt.,

I am only too glad to mail your this card and am glad to know Carlisle claims me one her sons. I have been with this company nearly two years and I find to work interesting. There is one thing I would ask you to do for me as a favor and am pretty sure it will help me out for the future. You by writing a letter to Mr. Eli and Isaac Oppenheim whom seems very much interested in me asking to advance me in every way possible for the future.
Such a letter to Oppenheim brothers will help me out wonderful. I am sure they will take a greater care for me and for Carlisle's honor. Mr. Oberndorf has the New York office while Oppenheim brothers have this city. These two brothers are as nice as they can be and hoping you will do me this favor and surely both ends will meet success. Sincerely

YOUNG INDIAN WILL WORK IN STEELTON, PA.

Joseph Sheehan Employed Here Over A Year Will Leave Tomorrow.

Joseph Sheehan, who recently resigned his position with the Waynesboro Record Co., will leave tomorrow morning for Steelton, Pa., where he has accepted a position at his trade of printing.

Mr. Sheehan whose home is in Alaska, for seven years was a student in the Carlisle Indian school where he learned the printer's trade and from which institution he was graduated last April. He came to this place in April 1907 since which time he was employed by the Waynesboro Record Co.

During his stay here he became identified with many organizations. He was a fine piccoloist and was a member of the famous Wayne Band and the M. E. Sunday school orchestra in which organizations he was a valuable assistant. He was also a member of the German Baptist Brethren Missionary Society and treasurer of the Boys Home and Foreign missionary society of the Presbyterian church.

In athletics he was popular, having distinguished himself on the gridiron here last fall by his persistent and all around football playing. At a meeting recently he was elected assistant captain of the football club of 1908.

By his many good traits of character he has won for himself many friends who will learn with regret the news of his intended departure and will wish for him a great degree of prosperity in his new field of work.

On Sunday morning last in the Y. M. C. A., Joseph Sheehan, an Alaska Indian, delivered a most interesting address on "The life of the Student at the Great Indian School at Carlisle, Pa." Young Sheehan has recently graduated from the school, and his talk was very interesting to the boys. Being an athlete of local prominence his thorough knowledge of sports and the inside doings of the great school were most elaborately presented. The young Indian is a printer by profession, and is engaged at the Citizen office. — The Citizen, Frederick, Md., October 15, 1909.

1909

Some of our students and former students figure in the news of the day. Here is a note about one of them taken from the Waynesboro Herald, under date of August 28: Joseph Sheehan, a young Indian, who had formerly been employed in Waynesboro at his trade of printing, but now working in Frederick, Md., is spending a few days in Waynesboro with old acquaintances. Young Mr. Sheehan is an athlete of more than ordinary ability, by reason of which he was invited to accompany the A. T. H. & L. running team to Carlisle to participate in the hook and ladder contest. Mr. Sheehan for several years was a student at the United States Indian School, at Carlisle.

Marathoners awakening.

Marathoners of this city are beginning to awaken to the fact that they have been negligent in the matter of forwarding their entries for The News-Times Marathon to be held on May 13, and it was with a returned feeling of pride in our boys that I opened the mail today to find eight more listed for the big race. The first entry blank to hand was that of Joe Sheehan, a well-known figure in this section of the country competing under the silks of the C. C. C. Sheehan is an Aleutian Indian, whose predecessors inhabited Unalaska Island, one of the pretty spots of the Aleutian group. His father at this time is in the Revenue Cutter Service off the coast of Alaska. As a runner Sheehan first budded forth at Carlisle and soon made the team by his earnest work. As a Marathoner he is an uncertain quantity, though he has trained carefully for this race. Look out, fellows! he may be the dark horse. Don't forget to enter, for your last chance is but a few days off. Get in line and quick, at that!

My, how Birds did fly!

INDIAN WILL RUN IN NEWS-TIMES CLASSIC

Joseph Sheehan, A Carlisle Brave, To Compete In Great Marathon.

Among the batch of entries received this morning, bringing the total up to 35, for the third annual News-Times Marathon, to be run from Laurel, Md., to the Washington Times Building, Washington, D. C., May 13, was that of an American Indian, Joseph Sheehan, formerly a star football player on the Carlisle eleven, but who has now taken up the running game and will sport the silks of the Cross Country Club. Sheehan has proved a mighty popular clubman with the C. C. C. boys, and many will whoop it up for the brave, who will make an effort to land among the medal winners in the 20-mile run.

Sheehan has proved his endurance time and again against the best football stars in this country, and just what he can do in a distance event remains to be seen.

Surprised Distance Men.

In last Sunday's 15-mile race, held under the auspices of the Cross Country Club, he surprised all the distancers by his clever work. In addition to Indian Joe's entry, seven others were recorded, which is encouraging to the local management. Thomas George, W. A. McCusker, Frank A. Ruth, Merrick G. Shawe and Joseph F. Solan, all of the Cross Country Club; H. Badenhop, Jr., Baltimore Law School, and W. Phillips of the Hamilton Country Club are the other latest comers.

Thomas George of England has carried the colors of his chosen organization, the C. C. C., quite successfully and has figured as a team man on occasion in the last three performances.

Dear Friend:-

Just a few lines of interest to you. I received your Christmas greeting letter and I certainly did enjoy reading it. I am working in a big shirt manufactory, namely - The Oppenheim - Oberndorf Company, as stock clerk. I had to give up printing as it would have gone against my health if I had kept it up. I enclose clippings from our daily papers which will interest you. I belong to the Baltimore Cross Country Club Track Team, which the article will read. In 1910 I played with the Wallbrook A.S. on football team, at end. I am well liked by all track and football men. Am in good standing everywhere I go. J. BOLAC FINISHED SECOND

Old Warhorse of the Cross Country Club Took Things Easy Until Last Two Miles, Where He Went to Front and Stayed to End—
Only Starter From Scratch—Locals Captured Team Trophy—
How They Finished.

The 10-mile open handicap race of the Cross Country Club from the Battle Monument to Oriole Park yesterday afternoon was won by Henry C. Elphinstone, the old warhorse of the Cross Country Club, who beat a classy field of 50 of the best runners of this city and Washington. The consistent local performer covered the route from the Battle Monument to Lexington street, to Fulton avenue, to North avenue, to Greenmount avenue and 26 laps over a turf track at the York road baseball grounds in the splendid time of 1 hour 6 minutes 31 seconds.

Elphinstone overcame a handicap allotted to some runners as high as four minutes, and showed his usual good form, jumping into the lead when two miles from home. Johnny Bolac, of the Washington Cross Country Club, finished second, while Louis R. Hiteshew, of the Central Y. M. C. A., was third. In addition to winning the first cup offered the winner of the race, the Cross Country Club, with practically a novice team—Elphinstone excepted—won the trophy offered to the club having the first five men to finish.

This crack organization had Elphinstone finish first; Frank A. Ruth, second; Steve Gaule, sixth; Joseph Sheehan, eighth, and Thomas George, tenth for the honors, while the Washington Cross Country Club put up a game fight, landing the next five across the finishing line. The Capital City athletes had Bolac, second; Holland, fourth; R. E. Williams, ninth; Groome, eleventh, and Warner Curley, fourteenth. The Central Y. M. C. A. furnished the third squad. The first five runners received silver loving cups, while from the sixth to the twenty-fifth places, respectively, bronze medals were awarded. G. Holland and Ike Ruth landed the fourth and fifth cups. There was some discussion about the order of the finish of these two athletes, which was finally adjusted by the head checker, Jewett, and his assistants.

Gaule Beats Danny Miller.

Steve Gaule, of the C. C. C., ran a good race and beat out Danny Miller, of Central, in a pretty exhibition of sprinting. It was difficult for the judges to tell who had won. Joe Sheehan, the Indian, also finished well, landing the eighth medal. R. E. Williams, of the Washington Cross Country Club, was the third Washington man to finish, and he was ninth.

Elphinstone, the winner, ran a well-judged race, and in the run through the city streets he reserved his strength for the crucial and grueling five miles on soggy ground. He did not loaf by any means, but kept to uniform pace.

Once he reached Oriole Park he began a sprint that brought the crowd to its feet, and soon he was among the contenders. About two miles more to go found the great distance runner out in front. Then pandemonium reigned among the spectators. He was never challenged and crossed the finish line several hundred yards ahead of Bolac, of Washington, his nearest competitor.

The day was ideal for running but the improvised track at Oriole Park was far from being fit for speedy running. Thomas George went out in front when Fulton avenue and Lexington street was reached, but this early effort caused him to forfeit

The day was ideal for running but the improvised track at Oriole Park was far from being fit for speedy running. Thomas George went out in front when Fulton avenue and Lexington street was reached, but this early effort caused him to forfeit his chances for a higher place. He finished tenth. Little Joe Smith, of the Cross Country Club, was forced to retire at the North avenue bridge and was helped into an automobile.

A great crowd lined the route and encouraged the tired athletes to stronger efforts. Henry G. Penniman, the referee, handled the big event in masterly fashion, and but for the usual kicks of disgruntled competitors the event was pulled off very successfully. As long as a race is run on a big lap scale (that is running considerable distance on a lap track) there will likely be dissatisfaction. The spectators and athletes see so much of the merry-go-round effect that they get the place their friend finishes confused and then blame the officials for laxity, while the latter are correct in their tallying.

Order of the Finish.

Dear friend:

I have your letter saying that you feel hurt because an item which you had sent to the school here for publication had been turned down. I did not do this with the idea of hurting your feelings, but for the reason that I do not think the Carlisle school should put its approval on the practice of educated Indians going about the country under false names and posing as true representatives of the Indian race. Chief Horse Eagle is a Sioux Indian name and it is very doubtful if any Chemawa graduate ever had such a name. Remember, my friend, that we are always interested in you and have been pleased at the success which you have made in the east among white people, but I want to emphasize the fact that we are not willing to use the Arrow to boost any Indians about whom we know nothing.

You are one of the boys whom Carlisle considers their successes and I hope you will not feel hard against the school or any of us for taking a stand which we think is for the best interests of its pupils, and in fact all Indians.

With my best wishes for your continued success, I am,

Very truly yours,

Chief Clerk in Charge.

Washington, D.C.

Jan. 12, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Denny:

Please write Joseph ^{and} explain to him that the Carlisle School can not put its approval on the practice of educated Indians going about the country under false names and posing as true representatives of the Indian race. Chief Horse Eagle is a Sioux Indian name and it is very doubtful if any Cherokeean graduate ever had such a name. We are interested in Joe but not in his friend to the extent that we are willing to use the Arrow to boost him.

Mr. Henderson is here from Cherokee and I have told him about the illness of Green George. He says we should not recognize any request coming from this boy's father who never did a thing for the boy. He is an illegitimate and was raised at the Cherokee School. The boy has inherited several hundred dollars and the father is anxious to have him come home to get his money. Mr. Henderson says to send reports to him only.

I sincerely hope we may have no epidemic among our students this winter. I feel very deeply the great responsibility that rests on me in respect to the health of those boys and girls ^{and} we must spare no reasonable expense when it comes to caring for them when they are sick.

I hope to get home tomorrow evening (Saturday) for a few days. I may have to make a trip west in a week or so but will not be away more than a week or ten days. I find this inaugural job involves a lot of detail.

Hope things are going well with you all there.
Sincerely yours,
O. H. Lipps
