Dear Friend:-

I have your letter of January twenty-second, and note that you have resigned your position at Haskell, and are desirous of reentering the Service. I would suggest that you write to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., and make application to reenter the Service, telling him what kind of work you can do. If they refer the matter to me, I shall be pleased to give you a recommendation as your work at Carlisle was satisfactory.

Wishing you success, I am,

Sincerely your friend,

MF:SR

Superintendent.

'I figured on losing to Denver by about three touchdowns,' said Bender. 'Not that I overrated Denver, but my own team played a better game than I dared hope for.'
