And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. Your letter of the 6th instant has been received here and in reply thereto I must state that at the request of your son Howard it has been arranged so that he can remain at the outing home where he is now located until the close of the summer outing period the latter part of August. My dear Sir:

Although as a rule I am not in favor of allowing students of this school to assist their parents from earnings on deposit here, the request contained in your letter of the 12th instant has been given favorable consideration and a check in the amount of fifteen dollars ($15.00) has been drawn on your son Howard's account and is being forwarded to him at his Outing home to be signed and endorsed and then mailed to you.

Howard should be given a note to cover the amount as a matter of business, and as he is to return here on the 1st of September I will gladly assist further than as may be required to adjust the matter if such help is necessary.

As a matter of record you should acknowledge receipt of the check in a letter addressed to me.

Howard Metoxen's father has written me that Howard is willing to let him have some of his earnings to pay a note that is due on the 1st of September. As a general rule I do not favor such a transaction, but have decided to comply with the wishes of Howard and his father and am enclosing a check in the amount of fifteen dollars drawn on Howard's account. If he is yet willing to send the amount on he should sign and endorse the check and then mail it to his father.

As prompt action is imperative I am sending the check to you direct so that you can assist Howard to get it executed and forwarded without delay.

Oneida, Wisconsin.

My dear Mr. Hart:-

I have a letter from Howard Metoxen an Oneida pupil of this school now under the cutting saying that he has received a letter from his mother out there telling him that the father is out of work and she and the children are in want. He wants permission from me to stop school and work for wages so that he can send money home to his mother and little brothers. His father's name is John Metoxen.

Howard is young and needs all the schooling he can get. He is living with some very good people who are always interested in giving their Indian boys all the schooling possible. He has the chance now of going to school all day up until the first of April and perhaps longer. He loaned his father $15 from his wages this summer because they seemed to be hard up.

What do you advise in this case ?

Very truly yours

Dear Howard: -

I have your letter about stopping school and working for wages so that you can help your mother and brothers who are in need. I have written Mr. Hart for his recommendation and will write you again when I hear from him.

I would be very sorry to see you stop school at this time. You need all the schooling you can get and now that you have the chance to go to school all day and you are in a home where your country father and mother will help you along with your studies, you should not let the opportunity slip.

You have Seventy Five Dollars here which you have saved from your summer and fall earnings. If you want to send any part of this amount to your mother, I will be glad to have you do so.

Very truly yours

Dear Mr. Lippes,

I received a letter from my mother last Saturday saying that they are in need of money. And the two little children have no shoes at all, and very little clothing. She said that it is awful cold out there already, and my father cannot earn money because he cannot work any more. He is getting too old. She also said that my father wrote a letter to you few months ago and asked you for me to go home. They were expecting me to go home in August but I didn't know that they wanted me to go home. She said that they would like to know whether or not I am willing to work and earn money for this winter, to buy food for them, and some clothing for the poor little children. They are my little brothers.

I thought you would let me go to work for this winter because my three long years was up last September. If you will, I will stay right here on this farm, and send the money out to my poor parents every month.

From your student,
Howard Metcalf.

Dear Howard:-

I have had a reply to my letter to Mr. Hart asking him whether he thought it necessary for you to quit school and help support your mother and little brothers. He says that he thinks you have done all that is required of you. The younger children are in school or are eligible to enter if they are not already there. He also says that you have two elder brothers who might be better able to help support the family than you.

In view of the above, I think it best that you continue in school and not stop to work for wages. As I said in my other letter to you, there will be no objection to sending your mother some of your last summer's wages if you wanted to. You have $75.07 to your credit in bank now. If you desire to do this, you can write me again.

I hope you will understand Howard, that this decision is made for your best interests. I know how you feel about helping your folks but you must remember that you have yourself and your future to consider too.

My dear Mr. Lipps:

Replying to your favor of the 21st, concerning the application of John Metoxen for the return of his son Howard, or that he work for wages to support his mother and brothers, I have not seen Mr. Metoxen lately, but I am of the opinion that Howard has probably done all that is required of him. The younger children are either in Government schools or are eligible to attend. The mother is still comparatively young. The father is now rather advanced in years, but there are two older sons somewhere here who might do something for the father if required.

John had a nice property up tp a few years ago, and apparently has let it get away from him. Unless he can make a much stronger case than is now presented I do not think he has a valid claim on the time of Howard, and I am not satisfied that it would be best for either father or son.

My experience in a number of cases in the past has been that the son, released from school, goes his own way, and later it is developed that such was the intention, and that the parent made the plea at the request of the son. This may not be true in the present case, but it is not impossible.

As Howard has asked for Twenty Five Dollars to send to his father to pay their taxes, I am sending a check for this amount for his signature. I have made this check payable to Howard so he must sign and endorse it. If he prefers, he can return this to me and I will send it to his father.

Dear Mr. Sipps,

I received a letter from my father to-day, asked me to send some money to him, because he can not earn money any more. He says that he will have to get Twenty-Five Dollars to pay for the tax, and if I don't send any, he will lose his place.

Some time ago he had to sell his land, because he could not pay the tax, and bought another place not half as big as the one he sold. But there are good buildings on it.

He had to pay $108 for drilling a well 108 feet deep, and it is a good and cold water.

He had a good team of horses, and he had to sell of them last spring to pay the tax. If he keeps on he will not have anything, then where will he go. I know he can not do any work to earn something. He is looking towards me now. He wouldn't look towards my two brothers. I know why too.

I ~~don't~~ like to see him leave his place, because he has a good place now.

I am willing to send a check for Twenty-Five Dollars as soon as possible,

My dear Mr. Lipps:

Your favor of the 12th, with letter of Howard Metoxen received. Howard seems to have a pretty clear understanding of the circumstances, and that any contribution by him is only a temporary relief, but it is true that Mr. Metoxen is no longer able to do much, and that he may lose what little he has left if he does not get help.

Under the circumstances it may be best for Howard to help him, making remittances as small as will answer the purpose, as any surplus may not be wisely used.
