Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Mr. Kern made quite a bit of complaint about Herbert's conduct when he first came out but claims he has improved. He also had much to say about the inability of the boy and how he could not afford to give much wage etc etc.

My conclusion is that while Mr. Kern affords a good home and is kind to his boys yet he is inclined to be a little close about paying proper wages. I would recommend that Herbert be paid at least $8 per month.

I asked for the increase but he frankly said the boy was worth no more but that if he improved he would increase wages to suit.

My dear Sir:

I regret to advise that your son Herbert has again deserted from this school, and the report has come to me from the Chief of Police of Petersburg, Virginia, that he is now in jail in that city. In view of the fact that we have had so much trouble with the boy I would not be justified in sending for him, and so I am notifying you so that you can do as you think advisable. If you desire that the boy be given one more chance, and he himself is in earnest and anxious to "make good" you may send him on at your own expense.

Thanking you for your co-operation, I am,
