INDIAN DESERTER FROM CARLISLE NABBED HERE

Max Favel, an Indian who is alleged to have deserted from the U. S. Industrial Training school at Carlisle, was arrested last evening by Patrolman Buttorf. Favel has been working for a number of weeks at one of the industrial plants, where he has passed himself off as a negro. Instructions for Favel's arrest were received yesterday by the police department from M. Freedman, superintendent of the school and an officer will arrive in the city today to take Favel to Carlisle. Favel, who is twenty-three years old, declares that he cannot legally be kept in the industrial school and does not intend to remain there.

ARRESTED AS DESERTER

Max Favel, an Indian from the United States Industrial school at Carlisle, was arrested here as a deserter from the school yesterday and is held awaiting the arrival of an officer. Officer Buttorff arrested the Indian. He declares he will put up a fight before they keep him there. He apparently has a grievance against the institution. Favel was working in York about two months, and it is said he passed himself off as a negro. The police department some time ago notified the Carlisle school people that such a person was here, and yesterday they received word to arrest and hold him.

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Re yours of April 1, 1914, concerning claim of Maxime Favel, a Colville Indian, for reimbursement of the amount he expended in payment for his transportation to Carlisle in November, 1911.

Prior to starting to Carlisle Favel asked for transportation thereto, which I denied, informing him that he must pay his own way and make his claim to Superintendent Friedman for reimbursement, which I doubted would be made, as I had understood that transportation funds at Carlisle were too low to justify the bringing of pupils from such a distance. This occurred before the division of the old Colville Agency was made, and all of the records pertaining to the Colville Indians are at Nespelem, but I remember his application for money for the journey, which I gave him from his annuity funds to the extent of something under $100.00.

Mr. O. H. Lipp, s ----- 2

Superintendent Johnson informs me that Favel returned here in the Summer or Fall of 1912, hanging around Spokane for a few weeks before going home. Then he appealed to Superintendent Johnson for more funds to return to Carlisle, which were given.

I never promised him that he would be reimbursed for his expenses on the first trip, merely informing him that the Carlisle Superintendent might consider a claim, as above stated.

With every good wish for you,

Very sincerely,

Dear Capt. Webster:

Maxime Favel, who was enrolled here from Wau-submitted a request to the Office at Washington and to me for a reimbursement of the amount he expended in paying for his transportation to Carlisle. Maxime claims that he was promised such a reimbursement by you before he left his home for Carlisle.

The records indicate that Maxime came on at his own expense and upon his arrival here he signed an application for a one year period of enrolment. That indicates that he must not have expected a reimbursement at that time. However, as he insists that you promised

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Referring to the Office's letter of March the 24th, I respectfully report that there is no evidence on file here to show that Maxime Favel's transportation from his home to Carlisle was paid by the Government.

The records here indicate that Maxime was enrolled for but one year and that he went to his home after he had remained here for a week or two longer than that year. Later he again returned to Carlisle, and within a few months after that he deserted to York, Pennsylvania, where he escaped detection by posing as a Negro. When he was apprehended and returned here to school he remained only from September the 20th of 1913 to October the 20th of the same year.

I transmit herewith other correspondence which seems to indicate that Maxime was not promised transportation to Carlisle.

Very respectfully,

Mr. O. H. Lipps,
Supervisor in Charge, Carlisle School.

My dear Mr. Lipps:

I am in receipt of a letter dated York, Pennsylvania, March 21, 1914, from one Maxime Favel, a former pupil of the Carlisle School, who complains that he came to said school from the Colville Reservation, Washington, and enrolled during the fall of 1911; that he paid the sum of $68.75 for his transportation from his home to said Carlisle School, which should have been paid by the Government, and that it was his understanding from Captain Webster, his Agent, that this transportation would be paid for him by the Government.

He has never received the return of his $68.75. It is probable that this amount may have been vouchered to the Government.

I wish you would look this matter up at once and advise me promptly in the premises.

Very truly yours,

March 30th, 1914.

The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Referring to the Office's letter of March the 28th I respectfully report that the Maxime Favel who is mentioned therein seems to have come to Carlisle without any previous correspondence having passed regarding his enrolment. Upon his arrival here an application to cover a one year period of enrolment was executed by the young man and is now on file. That alone would indicate that he did not expect to be reimbursed for his transportation, and I recommend that no consideration be given his request.

I beg leave to call attention to a letter that was addressed to the Office on March the 24th, relative to the status of this same young man.

Very respectfully,

HCM.

Supervisor in Charge.

COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON

MAR 28 1914

Mr. O. H. Lipps,
Supervisor, Carlisle School.

Sir:

Maxime Favel, of Waconda, Washington, has been in the Office and says that in the fall of 1911, when he was about twenty years of age, he advanced his transportation from Republic, Washington, to Carlisle, amounting to $68.75. He understood at the time that he went to Carlisle that the transportation which he advanced would be refunded. He says that during his enrollment he asked that this be done, but no action was taken. He left the school in June, 1913.

Please look into this matter, and if, in your judgment, his transportation to Carlisle should have been paid by the Government, consider the advisability of submitting a claim covering the amount of his transportation. He is at present employed at York, Pa., and you may communicate with him there.

Respectfully,

Second Assistant Commissioner.

I never promised him that he would be reimbursed for his expenses on the first trip, merely informing him that the Carlisle agent might consider a claim, as
The Honorable,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

This same matter had been referred to in Office letters. I respectfully submit below for the information of the Office a copy of a letter that was addressed to me on April the 6th by Capt. Webster of the Spokane Indian Agency:

HXX. "Re yours of April 1, 1914, concerning claim of Maxime Favel, a Colville Indian, for reimbursement of the amount he expended in payment for his transportation to Carlisle in November, 1911.

Prior to starting to Carlisle Favel asked for transportation thereto, which I denied, informing him that he must pay his own way and make his claim to Superintendent Friedman for reimbursement, which I doubted would be made, as I had understood that transportation funds at Carlisle were too low to justify the bringing of pupils from such a distance. This occurred before the division of the old Colville Agency was made, and all of the records pertaining to the Colville Indians are at Nespelen, but I remember his application for money for the journey, which I gave him from his annuity funds to the extent of something under $100.00.

Superintendent Johnson informs me that Favel returned here in the Summer or Fall of 1912, hanging around Spokane for a few weeks before going home. Then he appealed to Superintendent Johnson for more funds to return to Carlisle, which were given.

STENO & SACT.
-2- Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

I never promised him that he would be reimbursed for his expenses on the first trip, merely informing him that the Carlisle Superintendent might consider a claim, as above stated.

With every good wish for you,"

This same matter had been referred to in Office letters of March 24th and March 28th, last, respectively.

Very respectfully,

HKM.
