Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Alfred has a good home and seems well pleased. He and Mr. Silcot were farming plowing in a field by the tracey line when I was there today. Each had a team and Alfred was doing fairly good work. He does not seem to know English well and it is hard to make him understand. He goes ahead with chares about the barn without being told and is pleasing to the employer.

Alfred wants to remain with Mr. Silcot and go to school in the winter but it is not probable that Mr. Silcot will need a boy.

I am favorably impressed with Mr. Silcot and no doubt he affords a good home for the boy.
I have never been to the home.
