An interesting letter has been received from Jesse Kenjockety, Tunnassa, N. Y., where he is working and expects to spend the summer. During his stay there he has become a member of the local Y. M. C. A. and writes, "I was elected a clerk. I am going to do all I can to have the young people join us. There is lots of work here to be done in that line." It is evident that his strong purpose is to be an influence for good wherever he is placed. 1161 216
