The oldest one is only ten years old.

She says we must all have fun evenly.

She is certainly a nice woman she is.

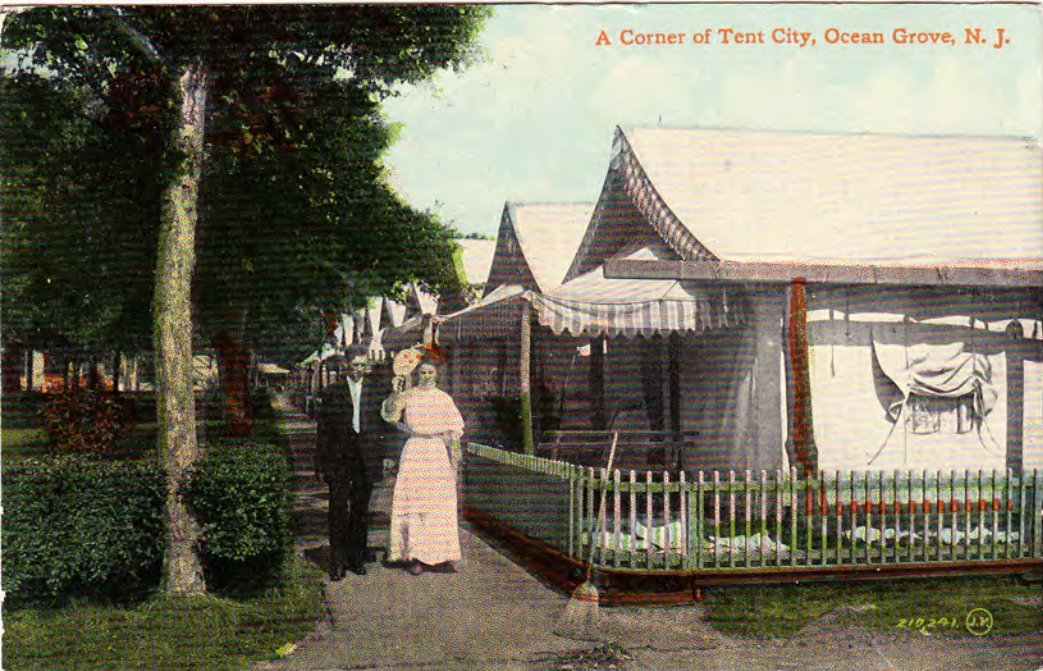

She is first cousin to Mrs. Richards in Fallsington, Pa.

I haven't heard from him for a long time now not since after new year anyway.

It gives me pleasure to hear good reports about you and I hope you will continue to do as well as you have done. If at any time I can be of assistance to you in anyway I want you to come to me for it.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN;

This is to certify that Rufus Youngbird was enrolled at this school until August the 3rd of 1910. During the time he was a student at this school he had a splendid reputation and he made a good record. Since that date he has been employed where the school authorities have had an opportunity to hear reports concerning him and all such have been favorable.

I do not hesitate to say that he is worthy of being given a trial in any line of work for which his training has fitted him.

Independence Hall. Situated on Chestnut Street between Fifth and Sixth Streets and on the north side of Independence Square, the Chestnut Street front is the rear of the building, built 1729-35 by the Province of Penna. as the Colonial State House. The Declaration of Independence was proclaimed in 1776, and the first Congress made preparations for the Revolutionary War. The tower was erected in 1741; in 1750 the steeple was built over the tower, and June, 1753 the bell was hung. The Supreme Court House was built in 1791 when it was supposed Philadelphia would be the National Capitol. Upon the removal of the Supreme Court to Washington, D. C. this building became City Hall.

Dear Mr. Friedman:

I will take my time to night, and write a few lines
just to let you know how I am getting along by this time.

It was very kind of you indeed to send me that the arrow and the school catalogue.

I want to thank you for it.
I appreciated your thought of me.

I am getting a long well with my new trade that I have just taking up lately.

I have been a chauffeur since last October 15th with J. N. Richards at Fallsington, Pa. and I have made out very well with it.

I am only here for short time with him just for the winter.

I think he is going to get two boys of your school when the first party leaves at the school, and so that leaves me out of the job here with him, and take up the City work again that is be a chauffeur for a man in the city this coming spring.

The people that now I am working for them will get me a place where I will take care of just the same is here.

We have two Automobiles here, and one belongs to his son.

I run one called a Buick, and the other one is called Thomas car.

Thomas is racer car forty-five horse power.

I always out on the road every day since I came here with a car.

Mr. Friedman, if you ever start the automobile school, I think I will be back as I will like to be machinist some these days later on.

I have very nice chance to see the world next summer, and I will do more traveling than what I do now.

May be some day I will drive down to Carlisle.

I will now close my letter.

Replying to your letter asking about moccasins I have to say we have some for sale in the studio here, varying in price from $2 to $3. We also have some factory made moccasins which are very nice for bed room slippers. The best way to get the correct size is to draw the foot on a piece of paper and send that to us. Dear Mr. Youngbird:-

I have your letter of the 8th inst relative to the position offered you and your wife by one Ely Moore, Jr. of New York City and have to say that we know nothing of this man. He applied to the school for a man and his wife or a young man and a girl, pupils of this school, and it occurred to us that you might be in a position to help him out. Of course, we could do nothing for him. If you are interested, you will have to communicate with him directly. You have been out in the world long enough to know that it is not a wise thing to give up ~~give up~~ a good job for something uncertain so I would get all the information possible before making a change. I am sorry that I cannot help you.

With best wishes for your continued success.

Very truly yours
