Dear Friend

I am delighted in reading the little Arrows, and brings my thoughts back to Old Carlisle.

I am thankful for what knowledge I have received, while there.

My trade I learned there has benefited me to independent life.

Which is of blacksmithing, I really congratulate the old school,

for its great work and progression

I remain as an ex-student of Carlisle.

Wm Hornbuckle,

I am glad and thankful for what my alma mater of Carlisle has done for me. For giving me the privileges of learning what I have overcome. It is a benifit to me and most useful to me any where I may put in circulation. At present I am working for a certain Company title to The Champion Fillos Co., which I think I am getting along very smoothly. I am able to do any kind of work in the line of blacksmithing. I am glad to have such chance of writing to you and ^{also} benifit to my people.
