Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith left on Friday for their old home at Cherokee, North Carolina where Mr. Smith has been transferred as fireman. They came here from Cherokee in July but the frozen North has not treated them well and they pined for the Sunny South. They were pleasant and agreeable associates and we regret their departure.

1909

Communications from Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Smith state that they reached their old home at Cherokee, N. C. in good health and spirits and were overjoyed to see the mountains again.

1911
Jacob Smith, ex-student, writes from Cherokee, North Carolina, that he is now carpenter at the Indian School at that place. 274
