Dear Mrs. Henry:-

Just a few lines this evening in order to let you know that I am well and hoping that you are all the same. The Day has been cold here I thought it would rain but it changed. I suppose the snow is beginning to get green. I hope so.

I was very sorry that I had to leave Carlisle just when I was having a good time there. I am now with someones else. We sure had some fun when we were returning to our ships. I bought a state room. but when I went to go to sleep, I got 7 more men. I said "What time" I had money. I think we got the moneys worth. We had that much more to eat.

I must now go and work a little.

I will hope soon to say next time.

Send my best wishes to Company
 Capt.

Your very friend.
