I am doing all I can to educate and raise up my children in the right way. I am interested in the welfare of my people and interpret and write letters for them. A long time ago at your request I sent you a blank like this filled out

I received a copy of the catalog. I was glad to have it and would be glad also to have the school paper. It will also be enjoyed in the Mission reading room where my children attend school.

This was taken right
after the summer vacation.
