Dear friend

I in regards of you inviting me to your Alimi meeting Commencement week.

I sorry to say that it is imposble for me to be present on account of my work.

So all I can do is to give my best wishes and regards to the graduating class of 1912 and hoping that they will be an ambition class and also hoping that they wont go back to the Indian Reservations and live in the tippi or live the Indian ways.

My advice to graduating Class is to start out to the world and work like where I am now has done a great deal and help to me I have been working for Marshall & Steller Hard ware Co for the last three years and enjoying my work ever day in year for ever since I started to work for the house

As I havent any more to say I congrault the class for what they have sent and hoping that they make good use of they study.
