Mr. Edw. P. Davis,

Alma, Mich.

Dear Friend:-

I have your letter of November twenty-ninth, and have noted in the clipping you sent me that a full blood Indian was in town soliciting funds for the Carlisle Indian School. I am glad you reported this matter to me. If any man is soliciting funds for this school he is a fraud. There is no one delegated to obtain funds for this school. Every expense of the institution is paid by Congress in its annual appropriation, and we do not seek funds in any other way.

I would be pleased to have you give me more information concerning this man, and if there is anything you can do to stop his pernicious activity, I shall appreciate it. The local newspapers and wherever he is should be made to understand that he has no connection whatever with this institution.

Wishing you continued success, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

MF:SR

Mrs. Kate Dunham entertained her niece, Mrs. Amos Miller, of Ann Arbor, last week.

Miss Neva Briggs has returned from Detroit where she has been employed for the last three months.

M. R. VanDeusen is filling in the time until he takes his office at St. Johns in helping out at Bates' store.

A full blooded Indian from Rosebush was in town Saturday soliciting funds for the Carlisle Indian school.

Our community is beginning to brighten with the faces of our out of town students, who are home for Thanksgiving.

We are pleased to learn that our young fellow townsman, Ward VanDeusen, is making good in the real estate business in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wool entertained Virgil Parker and wife of Corunna and Mesdames Andrus, Smith and Wm. Hart of Oakley last week.

Funeral services of Mrs. Rhoda Parker were held at her late home on E. Main St. Wednesday, and the remains taken to Ovid for interment.

If Mr. Samuel Samuels of Fenmore Fax fame would give us his R. F. D. number, we might notify the editor of the Nickle Library of the wonderful writer down north.

The remains of Mrs. Daniel Moore were brought here Monday for burial. She died at her home in Owosso Friday night of apoplexy. Funeral at M. E. church, burial in Ford's cemetery.

Mrs. C. D. Fox, who has been the guest of her son, Willis, of Pittsburg, Mich., since the death of her husband, returned home for a few days last week and entertained her daughter, Mrs. Goldie Clark of Boon.

Our community was shocked and saddened by the death of Amza Newington, aged 24, at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Wool, Sunday morning of acute

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

October 26, 1917.

To Graduates and Ex-Students of Carlisle, Greetings:

As you have no doubt noticed the last issue of The Arrow was a combination issue of The Arrow and Red Man, the two publications which have heretofore been published at the Carlisle Indian School.

Owing to the increased cost of all supplies for the school and particularly of all materials going into the make-up of a newspaper or magazine, it has been deemed advisable to continue The Arrow as heretofore but to combine the issue, on the first week of the month, with The Red Man under the caption, The Carlisle Arrow and Red Man.

The material usually found in The Arrow will be in the combined issue, together with such other leading articles and information as may be collected of interest to Indians, Indian Service employees, and other friends and well-wishers of the Indian race.

The regular subscription price will be One Dollar a year payable in advance, but to all ex-students of the school a special rate of Fifty Cents a year is made. This is within the reach of every one.

Carlisle is your school. Its continued success reflects yours. It has given to you of its best. As a further evidence of its interest in you, you are offered the privilege of becoming a paid subscriber, at the reduced rate, to the paper and magazine that will come to you each week during the school year bearing welcome news of your beloved school.

You need The Arrow, and The Arrow needs you. Every loyal ex-Student should keep in touch with his school. This is your opportunity. Be true to your colors.

It will be our endeavor to make the new magazine issue newsy, interesting, and instructive, and we hope the change will be to your liking.

With the issue of October 26th, all free subscriptions will be dropped. Use enclosed card for mailing your fifty cents.

JOHN FRANCIS, Jr.
Superintendent.

Dear Friend:-

I was very glad, indeed, to receive your letter of recent date enclosing the three excellent photographs showing your shop together with a photograph of yourself. It is a pleasure to know of your success, and that you are reflecting credit on your Alma Mater. I hope that you will continue to do well, and be prosperous and happy.

Sincerely your friend,

“Thanks” for The Arrow.

Mr. Edward P. Davis, of Alma, Mich., who conducts one of the most popular and attractively furnished barber shops at that place, writes as follows:

“I extend my sincere thanks to you and the employes of the ARROW for past favors in receiving the ARROW weekly. It being some few years since being a student of Carlisle, the present body of students likely are all strangers. But I always have an interesting feeling toward old Carlisle, and I wish you all a Merry Christmas and many happy returns of the New Year.”

Dear Friend:-

I have your record of recent date and am pleased to know that you are successfully engaged in your own business. I wish more of the Indians might engage in business for themselves. I note that there is some question as to your possession of Indian lands, and I would suggest that you write to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., for more definite information with reference thereto.

I am having your name put on the complimentary list of THE ARROW, and shall be glad to hear from you at any time.

Very sincerely yours,
