Mr. Wm. A. Fairbanks,

Mahnomen, Minn.

Dear Friend:

The blank which you so kindly filled out has reached us, and I wish to thank you for taking the trouble to so promptly comply with our request. I am glad indeed to know that you are doing so well, and hope that each year will bring you greater success.

I should be very glad to get a picture of your house and store, as I think of publishing at some time in the future, a pamphlet containing views of returned students' homes and places of business which will convince the public that the work of Carlisle and similar institutions has not been in vain. I shall be glad to reimburse you for the cost of sending the photographs.

Very truly yours,

Superintendent.
