Odanah, Wisconsin, Jan. 26, 1912.

Mr. M. Friedman,

Supt. of U. S. Indian School,

Carlisle, P. A.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of Jan. 15, came to hand, and contents carefully considered.

I am very sorry to state that I have delayed in answering your letter, and the only excuse that I have to offer, is that we have a great number of things important to handle here on our reservation, and it has kept me quite busy to meet such obligations.

It fills my Heart with deep regret in not being able to make you a definite reply as to being present at your Commencement Week; also to anticipate in your Experience Meeting. While my educational standpoint was not very high when I left Carlisle, but its results helped me most wonderfully in a practical business way; therefore it may be possible that I may attend.

Very sincerely, your friend and ^{ex} student,

Daniel Morrison

Dear Friends:

Your letter of January 19 received, and in reply I am compelled at this time to make an indefinite reply as to my attendance at your Commencement Week; also your Experience Meeting. While I feel the altitude and strength that Carlisle School has offered a great number of our returned Students, I feel grateful that Carlisle has helped myself as well as a large number of others.

Are you in a position to give me any information in reference to whether people going the distance could get any particular reductions as to Railroad fare.

Very sincerely,

Daniel Morrison.
