Baraga Mich.

Joseph Picard, of L'Anse, Mich., has written Mr. Weber a most interesting letter since his return home. He seems to be putting to the best of use the knowledge gained while here at school with the result that his services as steam fitter and plumber are in frequent demand. He has been engaged to assist in putting in a hot water plant, the first in the town, which will be of further advantage to him. He writes, "The things I learned in the shop come in pretty handy now, only I wish I had a little more of it. I tell you, time spent there is worth something." Whether working at his trade or on the farm, he is, seemingly, endeavoring to keep up to the highest point of excellence.

Through the L'Anse Sentinel, published in L'Anse, Baraga County, Mich., we learn that Joseph Picard has gone into business for himself and is doing first class work as a plumber. Mr. Picard is one of our many ex-students who have received excellent training from Mr. Weber. '14
