Dear friend:- In forwarding you these few lines in reply to yours of sometime ago. The cause of my delay in not answering all your letter is that I was away all winter I was to North Dakota. on a visit and I have come home lately. Now as this is my spare time I want to tell you a few things.
Now my land is located on a small creek and is a fine place and I have a nice frame house on it and I got a fine expensive range for my horses and some saddle horse^s a couple sets of harness a buggy and a heavy lumber wagon. I got two children a boy and girl. The boy is twelve years old and the girl is seven. They are in the Government boarding school here now. Now I am ready to do my spring work, as the weather is fine.

All these things I give you in this letter is all perfectly true. I wish you would send me a bunch of these official envelopes to correspond with you regularly.
Answer at an early date and let me know all the news in C.
Yours very Respectfully
