Dear Sir:—

Will you kindly let me know if I have any money left in the bank at Carlisle, as I did not get my money which I earned when I was out in the country when I left there.

My folks told me that the Supt. or Mr. Friedman wrote them and said that I could get my money when I went home but I have not bothered with the matter till this day, and if I can get what money I have there if I have any, I will ask to come back to Carhile on my own expenses this next Sept. If it is O.K. with the

Hoping to hear from you
