INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

FOR NEW YORK PUPILS.

This blank is to be filled out and signed by a former teacher of the applicant, by a school trustee, a school superintendent, or by some other person conversant with the status of the applicant's school attendance.

Dear Mr. Friedman:

The following is the result of an investigation which I made on Jan. 3, 1913 regarding Amelia Hewitt living with Mrs. Elizabeth Smith at Jenkintown, Pa.

Amelia was transferred to Mrs. Smith Oct. 2, 1911. On Jan. 2, 1913, Amelia Hewitt gave birth to a baby boy. The nurse said the baby was two weeks overtime. Amelia told the Dr. and Mrs. Smith before I arrived that the father of the child is George Kraft of Jenkintown.

Mrs. Smith has been one of the most trusted patrons for fifteen years and is considered the standard by many other patrons. Mrs. Smith had not the slightest suspicion of Amelia's condition ^{until} the Dr. was called on Thursday morning.

Mrs. Smith said in her conversation with me, "You know Miss Gaither asked me to take Amelia and I took her "under a cloud". I thought I could help her." Mrs. Smith said Amelia had never been out of the house in the evening except to attend prayer meeting and church and as the church is only a few steps, not half a square, she allowed her to attend prayer meeting on Wednesday nights and church Sundays evenings. Mrs. Smith had asked the Sunday School teacher to chaperone Amelia home as Mrs. Cooper's home is just a few doors on the other side of Mrs. Smith's. Mrs. Cooper is the wife of the minister and Amelia's Sunday School teacher. This, Mrs. Cooper did when Amelia was there. Mrs. Smith frequently telephoned to Mrs. Cooper to inquire if Amelia were at the services and in every case but one she was there at the church. Mrs. Smith asked Amelia where she had been as Mrs. Cooper had said she was not in church. Amelia replied "O, yes I was there but Mrs. Cooper is old and cannot see well. She didn't see me."

Mrs. Smith realized that Amelia needed very close watching but Amelia eluded Mrs. Smith's vigilance in the following way as Amelia related it to me on Jan. 3, 1913. I attach her signed statement witnessed by the nurse and myself. She met this man when he delivered groceries at the door. This was not often as the grocer is not Mrs. Smith's regular grocer. On a Thursday evening about the middle of March 1912, Amelia had permission to attend an entertainment in the church which is, as stated before, a few doors below Mrs. Smith's home. She did not attend the entertainment but met George Kraft and spent the time with him in the yard of Beechwood Inn, a place in Jenkintown. She had intercourse with him at that time and often afterwards on Wednesday and Sunday nights in other places when Mrs. Smith thought she was in a church. She told me she had never menstruated since that Thursday night at Beechwood Inn.

She was always home about the time the church services were over. One evening it seemed rather late and Amelia was not yet at home so Mrs. Smith walked down to meet her. The church services were not over and Amelia came to the door and said, "I thought you would be worried about me." She seemed to allay every suspicion. Her sanitary napkins were hung on the line.

When I visited Mrs. Smith's home on Nov. 12th, I inquired about Amelia's monthly periods and Mrs. Smith replied that they were all right.

This George Kraft is a young white single man, about twenty years old. He is employed by Riggins, the grocer, as delivery man. This is in Jenkintown, Pa.. As far as I could learn he does not have any reputation at all in Jenkintown. Amelia told me she had told Kraft of her condition in August but that he did not believe her.

Chief Thomas, chief of police in Jenkintown, advised me to swear out a warrant on information for Kraft's arrest before the Justice of the Peace in Jenkintown. This I did last evening, ^{Jan. 3, 1913.} Kraft will be held until Amelia can appear against him which may be a little less than two weeks.

Very respectfully,

Lida M. Johnston.

My dear Mr. Dickey:

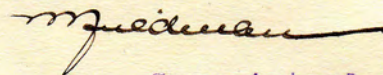

I have your letter of the 11th instant, inclosing report of your investigation of the Kraft-Hewitt case, and have to say that the report is clear and complete and satisfactory in every particular.

After carefully considering this case I think it best to allow the girl to marry George Kraft so I am inclosing herewith my sworn statement to that effect.

You are hereby directed to make any arrangement necessary to the consummation of the marriage of Amelia Hewitt and George Kraft, and see that Mrs. Smith is relieved, according to her request of the 10th instant.

Your letter was received both can't work. So we & are doing our best to get duty toward you. You must not exp

Mrs. Smith has no
pets for me. some of the things on the list I haven't got. and she didn't ask me what
I want. she just simply got the things she self.

and when I left
they just turn their

and we are not going
to pay her any thing.
I think she suppose

Mrs. Amelia Kroft,
511 Willow St.,
Jenkintown, Pa.

Dear Amelia:-

Your letter of the 14th inst. received. I note that you say there are four items on the bill that Mrs. Smith presents that you do not have. It will be well if you tell Mrs. Smith about it.

Mrs. Smith is very angry, that you deceived her as you did and of course she has no pity for you. She claims you disgraced her name and her household and no amount of money will repay her for the shame that she feels, all on your account. You not only disgraced Mrs. Smith, but you also made a bad name for the Carlisle School and for your race. I am very much out of patience with you myself and if I had not been compelled to handle your affairs I would have nothing to do with you either. You and your husband have no right to expect any one else to pay your bills. For months before you and Kroft were married you lived together as man and wife, and in doing so he brings upon himself the responsibility of taking care of you and your child. You need not look to anyone else to pay your bills. If it becomes necessary you will have to take in washing or work by the day.

You do not have the right idea of Mrs. Smith's duty toward you. You must not expect decent people to care for you or say good-bye to you, or have any feeling for you when you act as you have acted for the past ten months. If you would stop and think, I am sure that you could see that you do not deserve pity from anyone, let alone Mrs. Smith. The thing for you to do now, is to get to work and pay that bill.

Very respectfully,

LaF/RCW

M. Friedman, Superintendent,

Dear Mr. Friedman:-

According to your request, I have visited both Amelia Hewett and George Kraft for the purpose of obtaining information relative to the advisability, and possibility, of their being married; and my communication to you is a report of the conditions as I have found them.

I first went to the home where Amelia is living with her new born child to ascertain if she is willing to marry Kraft; and she told me it was her wish to marry him, providing he is willing, but that she does not wish to marry him against his will. I then began to investigate the character and reputation of the young man in question, to see if it would be advisable to grant the permission for the marriage; and I found conditions about as follows:

George Kraft is a young man about thirty years of age, strong, industrious and kind in disposition; but somewhat wayward in his habits. His ability is not to be banked upon, as he left school very early in life and was allowed to grow up with the street waifs and loafing class of the town. He has been employed by the same man for about twelve years as driver for a grocery wagon, which speaks well for him as far as muscular work is concerned. At the present time he commands a salary of Forty dollars per month, and is living with his parents, 511 willow St., Jenkintown, Pa.

George is of low berth, yet he is kind and seems to be honorable in many respects. He expressed to me his willingness to marry Amelia?, saying, it is only right that he stand by the girl whom he got into trouble. I find he is kind to his parents and has given them a part of his earnings ever since he was able to do for himself, and that he is not destitute of shame; being much disturbed at the thought of his parents finding out about his trouble.

While George partakes of the vices quite freely, yet he sticks to his work to his work and has never been arrested for any crime, except in one occasion for gambling. The town officer, Walter Wood, tells me he has known George Kraft from childhood and has no knowledge of his doing anything out of the way more than other young men of the town who have had the same training. To use Mr. Wood's own words, he said in part: "George will go out for a good time, He'll drink, smoke cigarets and partake of the vices quite freely, as most young men do now days; but he is a boy who could borrow a dollar if he wished to do so, for everyone knows that he will pay it back." 2"

In brief, both parties are willing to marry, and while Amelia's future does not look as bright as it might; yet under the present conditions I think it advisable and best that they be permitted to do so.

Hoping to have immediate advice from you on this matter,
I remain very,

Respectfully yours,

My dear Mr. Dickey:

The inclosed letter is for your information.

Mr. Friedman suggests that you investigate the matter carefully and if you think that George Kraft will do the right thing by the girl, it might be well to allow the marriage to take place, but Mr. Friedman says that you should be sure that Kraft means to make the girl his wife to support and not to leave as soon as he feels that he has done his part. You know that sometimes a man will marry a girl just to get clear of the law. That is what we must be sure that Kraft is not going to do in this promise to marry Caroline.

Hastily,

R. B. LaFlesche

Have just now received this of today's mail and in reply I will say, I think it is Kraft's intention to do what is right by the girl.

I am not so much afraid of his willingness as I am of his ability to carry out his good intentions.

Superintendent Friedman, -

In addition to what has been said, Mrs. Smith, the patron, with whom Amelia is living is not at all well and she wishes to have Amelia and her child removed from her home as soon as possible. She, Amelia, is now well and able to go anywhere according to the Doctor's statement and Mrs Smith requests that she be taken away.

I am sending herewith a blank form for you to fill out giving the couple in question permission to marry. If you are willing to give your consent, return this blank to me properly executed and I will arrange to have them married as soon as possible.

I will go to Newtown Pa. on Monday and take up the case of A.B. Smith vs Manley George. Mr. Smith having accused Manley for ~~kill~~ killing a horse. I will be back to this hotel again by Tuesday and hope to have word from you.

Dear lady:-

In the case of Commonwealth vs Geo. Kraft, charged with f and b committed upon Amelia Hewitt, the time of hearing is fixed for Jan. 18, 1913, at 2 O'clock P.M. in Borough Hall, of the Borough of Jenkintown, County of Montgomery, Pa.

It is very important at the time of hearing, that Amelia Hewitt, the Ward of said school be properly represented by a proper official of said school.

Please see that the proper person will be on hand at that time.

Truly yours,

Edwin Cook J. P.

Mr. Friedman, Supt. of the U.S.
Indian school, Carlisle, Pa.

Dear sir:-

Your communication to Chief Thomas of our town has been submitted to me by the chief to reply to for him. I would say in the beginning, I wrote a letter this morning and registered it to Miss Lydia M. Johnson, at Carlisle, Pa., Girls Field Agt. for said school, as she was the only one that I knew who to communicate to, at that time.

Concerning the hearing of the case of Commonwealth vs Geo. Kraft, charged with f and b with Amelia Hewitt, a 19 year female ward, living in our town with Mrs. Hutchinson Smith, a lady of high reputation whom I have for forty years. Kraft is held under $500.00 bail to appear at the borough hall at Jenkintown, on Jan. 18, at 2 o'clock P.M. to answer the aforesaid charges before Edwin Kirk, J.P.

Be sure at that time to have a proper representative here from your school to represent your ward at the hearing. No doubt Miss Johnson will show you my letter when she gets it.

Truly yours,

Edwin Kirk JR
