Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Clara is not satisfied as she feels it is too lonesome but her home is a very good one for a girl of Clara's type.

It is a very quiet country home situated at some distance from the village. Not at all public. Nearest neighbors are relatives of patron.

Clara has not been satisfactory as yet. Patron says she is very lady-like in her manner, is agreeable and amiable, gets along nicely with the children but she does not like to work, and is not at all dependable, does a great deal of complaining. She does not have the care of the children.

Patron said she had never laid out any exact work for Clara but expected her to work along with her in ordinary household duties.

As this was Clara's first experience under the outing, I suggested the work be systematically arranged and Clara be told definitely what to do and held responsible for it.
