LOCAL POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS ONLY INDIAN OFFICER IN THE STATE

When the board of public safety appointed John Godfroy to a position on the force as city patrolman it gave to Fort Wayne the distinction of having the only Indian police officer in the state.

John Godfroy is a grandson of James R. Godfroy, who was a brother of Chief Gabriel Godfroy, the noted Miami chief.

JOHN GODFROY
Indiana's Only Police Officer of Indian Extraction

He is a quarter blood Indian, but his features show his Indian ancestry but little, if any. He is a splendid specimen of physical manhood and will doubtless make a valuable addition to the police department.

Mr. Godfroy, who is thirty years of age, has largely through his own efforts achieved a good education. For some time he was employed by the government as disciplinarian in the Indian school at Pipestone, Minnesota, and had charge of instruction in military tactics there.

Mr. M. Freideman:

Superintendent.

Carlisle Indian School.

Carlisle Pa.

Dear Sir:

I received your letter some time ago stating that you would like to hear from returned students from time to time. so I will try and comply with your request more prompt in the future than I have been in the past. I am doing very good and getting along very well.

I have just been appointed to a position as patrolman on the Fort Wayne police force and I am doing very good. enclosed you will find a clipping from the Ft. Wayne journal gazette.

I receive the crew every week and I am very glad to get it as I find just as interesting as I did when I was at Carlisle and I am very thankful to you for sending it to me, wishing to be remembered to to my old friends at Carlisle.

I am yours very respectfully
John J. Godfrey

Mr. John J. Godfrey
Fort Wayne, Indiana.
434 E. Leith St.,
Dear friend:-

I want to answer your letter and congratulate you upon your appointment to the police force of your city. Your record at Carlisle was a good one and I feel quite sure that you will make a success of this new work you have undertaken.

I would be very glad to have a photograph of yourself in your police uniform. Can you get this for me ?

With best wishes for your continued success, I am

Your friend,

Superintendent.
