NARA APPROVED FOR RELEASE
THROUGHOUT THE WORLD
COMPLEX

November 20, 1917.

Mr. Leon Jure,
Redlands, Cal.

Dear Friend:-

Our request for paid subscriptions to the Arrow is meeting with splendid results. We are especially glad to hear from the former Carlisle students. While I am new at Carlisle, yet because you have been a Carlisle student, I extend to you sincere greetings.

I am sure your many friends here will be pleased to hear from you. I sent your message to Miss Reichel, the advisory member of the Invincible Society, and they will be pleased with your wish for their success since it comes from an Invincible.

The country mothers and fathers are good to their Indian boys and girls, are they not? I am sure it is a real treat to see Mr. and Mrs. Scott who were good friends of yours away back here in the East.

I am sorry to learn of your accident but trust you have recovered and will feel no ill effects.

Very sincerely,

LMJ.

Superintendent

JURE INJURED NEAR OAK GLEN

Leon Jure, employee of the Pioneer Transfer Company, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon when the heavy truck he was driving turned over as he was coming down grade to Redlands from Oak Glen. Jure's injuries will not be fatal, although he is badly cut and bruised about the head and body and was unconscious for the better part of an hour after the accident. He was taken to his home here and his condition this morning reported much improved.

Jure had been to Oak Glen for a load of apples and the truck was heavily loaded with fruit when it turned over. The brake on the truck burned out at one of the steepest points on the grade and the heavy machine started down hill at an uncontrollable rate of speed. In order to avoid going over the embankment at the side of the road Jure attempted to run the truck into the bank on the opposite side. It was in so doing that the truck turned over.

Fortunately Jure was not pinned under the wreckage but was thrown a number of feet distant where he lay until picked up by the occupants of another machine which came by shortly after the accident. The truck was not damaged to any great extent and a force of men went to the scene of the accident this morning to bring it down to a garage. Apples were scattered in all directions, as the entire load of about 100 boxes was dislodged from the track.

Redlands, Cal.,
Nov. 15, 1917.

Mr. John Francis Jr.
Superintendent,
Carlisle, Penn.

Dear Sir:-

You will find enclosed fifty-cents for the continuation of the
"Carlisle Arrow and Red man," and only to glad to become a paid subscriber.

I have been married over four years, ~~and~~ have a happy little family, a little boy three years old and baby daughter eight months old.

I often hear from the boys at Carlisle.

My Country mother and father from Joyland Pennsylvania, Mr and Mrs Walter Scott, are in Los Angeles living we visit quite often. And it seems real nice to see some one we know of Pennsylvania.

I am sending a clipping of an accident I was in.

As a ^{old} member of the Invincible Society I wish (over)

to be remembered. Give my regards to all.

Respectfully
Leon Jure

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.
