Dear Friends.

In regard to yours of Jan 19 I am sorry to say that I am not able to be present at Commencement Exercises, my farm work and other duties keep me back, although would like to visit dear old Carlisle once more. It will be but a few years more then I will take a trip over with my children to Carlisle, bring them to school, my oldest boy is as much interested in Carlisle school as I am.

I wish all the out going class great success in all their undertakings, wishing to be remembered by all Carlisle students

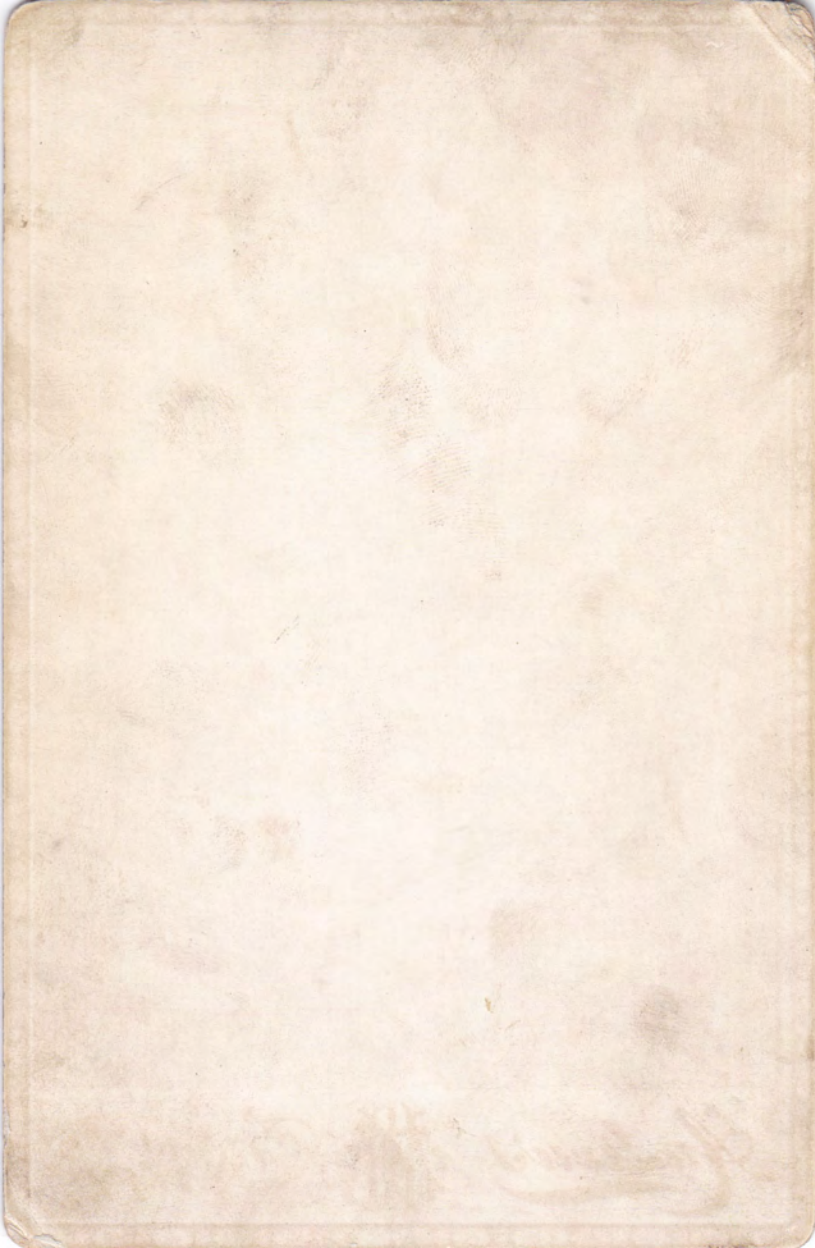

Gratefully Yours.
Robert Johnson.
