NAME Philip Weastkust

1. Are you married and if so to whom? Yes, to Emma Lindsay

2. What is your present address? Spalding, Ida.

3. Did you attend or graduate from any other schools after leaving Carlisle? No. Give names of schools and dates if possible.

4. What is your present occupation? Farming

5. Tell something of your present home. I am starting this year to farm myself and living happily, have one little boy, now his name is Jake Weastkust, will send him to Carlisle

6. What property in the way of land, stock, buildings or money do you have? I own a little cottage, not but soon will have larger house. We have small amount of money in which I think I will make good start in farming.

7. Have you been in the Indian Service? In what positions? How long in each? I have held a position during the fairs as a special police every year for three years and made successive work to protect my people from whiskey and all the bad habits

8. What other positions have you held since leaving Carlisle?

When I first arrived home, and I went in to farming, and earned with which I supported my parents

9. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life:

Nothing I can say of interesting in line with my life but I hope to make successful farmer, a few years from now. Thanking Carlisle for what it does for me. I have good many hilllands and relieving good rents payments, but still I want to work as I don't like Indians an doing now days. They don't have money. work when they have money I want to work more.

Yours
Philip Weastie
