

March 30th, 1915.

Mr. Theo. McCauley,
Macy, Nebr.

My dear Sir:

I have received your letter and am pleased to know that the former students at Carlisle, now residing on the Omaha Reservation, have organized a club. Such an organization should be a splendid influence and it should afford an opportunity for the members to be of help to one another and to their friends. Concerted action demands unselfishness and that alone fosters a spirit that is commendable.

Referring further to the contents of your letter I beg leave to inquire why you were not given a diploma when you completed your work in the harness shop here. A diploma that could be given you now would not have noted thereon the names of instructors and officials that would make it the most valuable to you, but if you will let me have additional information I will see what can be done for you.

With best wishes, I remain,

Yours very truly,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.

Dear Sir

When I was at Carlisle I received a diploma in the harness shop and as I see you have discontinued same, I would like to have the diploma as I would value it highly.

Last night night the Carlisle Return students met and organized a club with about forty members present. I have no further news until officers are installed.

Sincerely yours

Thos M. Cauley (Omaha) 82-8)
