Mr. M. Friedman
Supt. Indian School,
Carlisle Penn.

Dear Sir —

Being one of the Carlisle ex-student having been kept silently for so many years away from the school news. I have been trying to do as best I can to get along and fight for my self through this world. I have ~~see~~ resisted many a temptation I have been trying to do what I have learned at Carlisle School

... and work to farming as I have been doing all these years since I left the Dear School in 1898. I have stock of my own cows and hogs and goats chicken and am interested in my work.
This year I put in mighty fine acres of corn and through hired help I gathered in little over three thousand bushels corn. I have always enjoyed reading the Carlisle paper when it comes to us it is like a letter from the Dear school. I hope the Carlisle school will never be abolished, for it is doing a great deal of good the

... and throwing
up what is being done for them. We were so sorry to have to call brother John Tyndall away from the school; yet it was necessary that we have to have him home on account of the death of our brother David who is also an ex-student of Carlisle. I have a family of my own, and father is old and has to retire from work this year; in place of David, he needs John to do the work at home. And John has been very busy looking after father's stock and farm home, he just gotten through putting up ice in the ice house. The bushels of corn last week to market

Good bye

Wishing you a success
in all your work

I am your friend

Frank M. Tyndall

Macy,

Thurston Co.,

P.S.

There are some of the returned school pupils who will attend to your Commencement this year, which I hope they will be welcomed. We are Omahas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyndall with their three little ones have been visiting their boy Albert, and sister, Nora Esau. Both are old Carlisle students, and they said their visit carried them back in mind to their school days. In No. 3 school room, each gave a good and instructive talk to the pupils. Mr. Tyndall told of his earlier school days in Philadelphia, and how at one time he had worked in John Wanamaker's big store, making paper boxes, and learning to speak English. He urged thoroughness on industrial lines. Mrs. Esau's talk was excellent—she said many things were hard in school life, but all should try hard so there might be no regrets over wasted time by and bye. —Indian News, Indian School, Genoa, Nebraska.
