Replying to your letter of June 5th regarding Mr. Charles Baird.

We have today interviewed the above employe and he claims that the reasons for sending money to his father is on account of sickness in the family, his father having been incapacitated for work for some time.

Charles was allowed to draw his full pay, last pay day, out of which he sent his parents $20.

David Bird, our employee #B-5084 called upon the writer recently and stated that he was in need of some additional funds from his bank account at the Carlisle School. It seems that Mr. Bird has been having some dental work done and owes a $15.00 dentist's bill.

Replying to your letter of February 12th regarding Grover Martell, Chauncey White and Charles Baird.

In the case of Grover Martell, we wish to say that this man was absent for sometime during the month of October and November. The case however, was not brought to our attention until about December 1st, when we found that his record was about to be pulled as a quit. We asked that one of our Company doctors examine the man to make certain that there was no valid excuse for his absence. Several letters were sent to Mr. Martell asking him to come in. We feel entirely confident that had he presented one of these letters from our Medical Dept., there would have been no difficulty in securing an interview with one of the physicians. His entire contention at that time was that he could not stand the work on account of his eyes. Previous careful examinations by our Medical Dept., failed to reveal any serious eye defects.

Some two weeks ago he got in touch with the writer and made his complaint to us. At that time he stated that absence had been due to stomach trouble. He had nothing whatever to substantiate this and we informed him that if he could prove to our Medical Dept without doubt that he had been disabled during this period, in all probability he would be considered for a reinstatement. Several days later, he brought to the writer a statement from a doctor of this city, stating that he had been under his care for a period of two or three months for stomach trouble. This statement together with the man's record was forwarded to our Medical Dept., for decision. We find that another investigation at that point failed to reveal any serious trouble with the man. On account of the questionable character of the physician who made the statement, they did not feel that he had just cause for absence, and his request for reinstatement was denied. We are inclined to believe that this young man is not of the most desirable type and perhaps if he were to secure a position somewhere else for a time, he would in that way realize the opportunity he had missed here.

Mr. O. H. Lipps,
Carlisle Indian School
Carlisle, Pa.

We find on calling Mr. Chanucey White into the office that the information contained in Mr. Martell's letter to you is not entirely correct. The situation is that following the holidays, Mr white lost three or four day's time due to slight illness, caused by what he tells me to have been due to over eating on Christmas day. He is now entirely recovered and states that conditions under which he is working and his general health are of the very best at this time.

Charles Baird informed us that he needs items of clothing and we feel that you would be justified in sending him $12.00 for his bank account. Living expenses here, do not leave the boys very much spending money out of the amount which they get.

Yours very truly,

FORD MOTOR COMPANY,
Department of Education
