Dear Mr. Friedman:

May Carlisle
like to hear from me. I was one of the band boys when I was there, and also the football and the baseball. I enjoy my school life very much. I am sorry to mention that my health is failing right along, sometimes I think do much over my poor health that I could hear the noise in my head,
I have a family of five children the oldest is eleven years old, and friends at Carlisle.

Many of them may not remember me, but I remember them. My wife too, talks about Carlisle often and wish to be remembered her friends.

Wishing a happy - New year to you all.

Yours truly
Annob Reed

For the arrow.

Amos Reed, an Oneida ex-student, who, while at Carlisle, was a baseball and football player, writes that he appreciates what Carlisle has done for him. He has a family of five children. Failure in health has prevented his doing much work. 1912
