4. What is your present occupation? Truck farming.

5. Tell something of your present home I have a small frame house,

8. What other positions have you held since leaving Carlisle?

9. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life:

I will tell you just a history of myself, as to what I have been doing in the past, and what I am doing at present.

I am ashamed to tell you, but I have to tell you the truth. The first ten years after I returned from school I squandered away my time in drinking until I was absolutely worthless. But I am glad to tell you that God came into my heart, and changed my entire life, and now I am doing all I can to bring others to Christ.

I am also glad to tell you that I am interested in the general reform of the whole nation, then of course you might know that I am a prohibitionist, because it is the only party that is fighting the liquor traffic to a finish. The only party that believes in a complete destruction of the saloons and the manufacturing of alcoholic drinks. While the old parties are legalizing and licensing the saloons of our country, which is utterly useless.

Dear Sir:-

I thank you for remembering me every Christmas, as I consider myself the most insignificant of your school children.

We are doing our best to succeed, in every good work, most of the returned students are doing well and are self supporting people. Of course there are a few that don't care for themselves or anybody else, these are

are ones that are
objected to strong drink.
I'm glad to tell you that Mr. Wheelock is a prohibitionist of the strongest type
so beeh don't bother us
with our business.

Franklin, my oldest boy
is 14 years old, is there any room for him in your school now?

For that is the school I want all my children
to attend, for I know
it is a good school.

Good by I remain
yours truly,

(Mrs.) Benj. F. Wheelock

From an account written by Benj. T. Wheelock, an ex-student, we learn that he is now engaged in truck farming at West DePere, Wisconsin. Since leaving Carlisle he attended school for a short time at Hampton, Va. He is very much interested in church work and is doing all he can to bring others to the path of the righteous. 1074
