I have your favor of the 20th, requesting 25.00 from your account. The records show that you have drawn 100.00 since last September and as only 100.00 is allowed during any one year it will be necessary for me to secure authority from the office before I can send you more. Dear Mr. Lipps.

Will again write a few lines in regards to my present position and also about money matters. As I have told you we have to pay for our board by the week and as I do not get my pay till the 25th of June I would like to have twenty five dollars of my money which is in the bank. These first ten days I am working I do not get payed for but I will get that when I quit at the hotel.

I hope you will comply with my request and send me up what I ask for, because it would help me very much.

The fifteen dollars that I brought along are nearly spent for I bought a raincoat and hat before I started, so you see it reduced me some.

We are otherwise getting along fine and hope you will answer soon.

Dear Sir.

Arrived here safe and am now rooming at the hotel, getting along fine and glad to say its a nice place for the summer.
I found Edward in very good condition and is also well placed for the summer.
We do not sleep at the hotel any longer, for we changed rooms the day after I arrived on account of the room being in poor condition and besides it occupies at least six persons.

So we have to pay for our lodging
by the week and also our laundry.
I would like to ask you to send me my payment money as soon as it arrives at the school for I will need it till the 30th of June, which will be my first draw day. I will have to work at least ten days before I can start on for wages but I am perfectly satisfied because our work is nothing hard, but when I quit I will get paid for the first ten days.

I saw Simon in Thida, on the way here and he is getting along splendidly with his course

My general estimate of Daniel is that he ought to be able to do creditable First Year High School work. Had he remained here, he would no doubt be at present with the First Year Vocational classes. My dear Mr. Wise:

It is noted in your favor of the 29th ultimo that Daniel Needham will probably not be willing to return to Carlisle to complete his period of enrolment here, but in view of the fact that his case is now covered by specific regulations it is believed that he should not be given permission to remain at Haskell Institute. Daniel must have known that he could not be enrolled because of his prior re-enrolment at Carlisle, and it is my opinion that a beginning must be made somewhere to let students know that they are under certain obligations when they enroll at one or the other of the nonreservation schools.

I trust that barring Daniel from enrolment at Haskell will not result in his discontinuing his school work, and although he will not return here you may assure him that we will do what we can to assist him if he desires to go to work at his home or elsewhere.

Superintendent O. H. Lipps,
U. S. Indian School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

After receiving your letter of December 22, 1915, I called Daniel Needham to my office and talked with him concerning his return to Carlisle. His statement is that he returned to Carlisle for an additional year's work, paying his own expenses both ways, and that the unexpired portion of a school year was all that he was under any obligation to serve. Of course I know nothing of the facts. I agree with you that the new regulation or amendment 119(a) applies to this boy's case. However, he does not seem to be at all willing to return to Carlisle. He is anxious to take our business course, he says, although it is doubtful whether he can carry the first year work successfully, entering at this time of the year particularly. Our business department is quite crowded this year and I am not at all solicitous of increasing the enrollment.

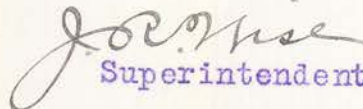

It does not seem to me that Daniel will very willingly return to Carlisle, however, and if you care to make a recommendation to the Office, in view of all the facts as you know them, and the Office approves, I will extend him the opportunity of trying the business course here. He has not been taken up on our records and will not be without the proper recommendation from you and authority from the Office.

If it is your desire, I shall willingly cooperate with you in an endeavor to get him back to your school to complete his unexpired term or his course there. Possibly, for the sake of discipline, it may be well to advise him to return to his home. You know his record so much better than I do that I shall not attempt to advise. I have no feeling in the matter one way or the other, as he came in without any formalities whatever, and he has no claim on this school for any special consideration.

Very respectfully,

Superintendent.

My dear Daniel:

I have noted with care the statements contained in your letter of the 11th instant and must call your attention to the fact that you err when you state you did not return to Carlisle in 1914 for any definite period of enrolment. There is on file here the application which was approved and submitted by Superintendent Dickens, signed by yourself, for re-enrolment for a three year period. We also have on file a letter you addressed to me on October 2nd of 1914 in which the following appears:

"As I am anxious to return to school again, I thought I would let you know. I have already signed the application blanks and as soon as my trans. arrives I will start out. I am anxious to return and continue my studies and I hope my transportation will not be delayed in any way."

Our records contain the additional information that the cost of your ticket was paid from Government funds and that you were allowed to go to your home "on leave".

-2- Mr. Daniel Needham.

United States Indian Training School.

I appreciate fully the position in which you are placed, but that does not alter the situation in any way. The fact remains that you are enrolled at Carlisle and that you should not have gone to the Haskell Institute without consulting Superintendent Dickens and requesting that your permanent release from this school be effected. Your application for enrolment here shows that you are now twenty-two years of age and that fact alone should have been sufficient reason for your finding out whether the authorities at the Haskell Institute desired to secure the special authority from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs required to effect your enrolment.

You had an excellent record at Carlisle and I do not want to deprive you of continuing with your education, but I must insist that you comply with the Regulations that now govern just such cases as yours.

Mr. O. H. Lipps,

Dear Mr. Lipps:

There seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to my enrolling here at this Institution. As I understand it, you are of the impression that I have yet a term to serve at Carlisle, At the close of the school year in the spring of 1914, my term expired and I went home for the summer. I returned the same fall at my own expense and did not sign for another term. I intended to stay only another year as I promised you in the spring, but on account of the illness of my father I was called home, then to return to Carlisle meant more money which I could not afford.

The death of my father has broken up the home, as my mother has been dead many years, and I realize that I must do something by which to make a living, and I have chosen this commercial course as that one thing.

Mr. O. H. Lipps:- -2-

If you have found that I am signed up for a second term at Carlisle, it must be an error because I did not sign any papers upon returning to that school the second time.

I would regret very much if I should be turned away from this school because I am practically penniless and have no home to go to.

Upon finding that I did not sign for a second term at that school, I hope that there is nothing that will hinder you from permitting me to remain here because my record was always clean at that place.

Hoping to receive a favorable reply from you by return mail, I am
