Dear Sir,

1130

Will kindly send me
my Diploma of Carlisle Indian School from the time I went there until I went home, as there is some trouble here for me to go with my husband I cant go no place with him I merely want it to show that I am not a white girl, But a Pure Indian girl. I will thank you very much oblidge.

Dear Sir:

Nov. 13th, 1914.

Mrs. Margaret Bairfield, Cavalry Detachment, West Point, N. Y.

Madam:

This is to inform you that our records contain the information that you were enrolled at this school from December the 10th of 1902 to June the 24th of 1904.

Referring further to your letter of recent date, this is to advise that your sister, Hannah Kennedy, is no longer enrolled at this school and that she will not have to return to Carlisle after she leaves the school where she is now being cared for.

Hoping that you will let me hear from you if further assistance can be given you, I am,

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.

Sir :

I have to keep on worrying you but I hope you will over look this please I had an accident with that card you send me to shows I have once been in Carlisle School I had a fire set to the house or at least I set fire to my house accidentally and every thing I had burned up and so I will ask you will you please send me another so I can have it to show people and I will try ~~to~~ not to worry you no more and can you give me any word of my sister Hannah Kennedy she is in a reform School at Harling Pa. but does she have to return to Carlisle when she get through at Harling School well please send me that card and I will be very much

Sir:

I am an old student of the school, and as I am in West Point have heard that the school is going to play here. I am asking you for a favor. I want to know if you will send me a school Banner. I will send you the cost of it if ~~you~~ there is any charge to it, and I am wondering if there are any girls and boys still there that were there when I was I tell these people here that I am an Indian but none of them believe me can you send me a card of my schooling I am a student of 1904 when Colonel Pratt was there in charge if there are any boys going to play here that I know could I hold any ~~copy~~ correspondence with them please write & let me know I am

Respectfully
