Dear Sir,

I thought I write and asked you for some of the photos, of the Carlisle pupils. I like to get some of the old time scholars photos also,

I am very much pleased with the papers you've send me & like to read them very much.

Please send me some pictures if you can.

I remain as ever yours friend Good-bye. Hoping to rec'd an early reply. From

Dear friend:-

I have your letter of the 14th inst asking for some of the old photographs of the school and have to say that we do not have these old photographs on hand any more. However if there are any special ones you would like to have, the lady in charge of the Studio here might be able to get them for you. You can write to Miss A. B. Reichel and state what you want.

With best wishes for your success,

I am

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
